Pub aims to help heroes

BANDS take to the stage at a village pub to raise cash for Help For Heroes this weekend.

Customers can also take the Ice Bucket Challenge.

The fundraiser takes place at the Victoria, in Norton East Road, Norton Canes, from 1pm on Saturday and will also feature food stalls and children's entertainment, ending with fireworks at 9pm.

Mick Woods, who runs the pub, said: "We want to raise as much as we can."

Project to rebuild fire station nears completion

Watch managers Ian Pullen and Tim Anslow at the new station

A NEW fire station is nearing completion as part of a £45 million project to rebuild sites.

The work at the Chase Terrace station in Rugeley Road is part of the £45 million second phase of a wholesale rebuilding and rebranding of fire stations throughout the county.

Eleven fire stations in total are being rebuilt, equipped with hi-tech facilities and space for more community activities.

Chase Terrace is due to open in the coming weeks after work started in September last year.

Councillor Eric Drinkwater, who represents the Chase Terrace ward, said: "We need that sort of facility here, so I welcome it.

"The fire service is a vital resource and it no longer just tackles fires, they install fire detectors and they often test things like electric blankets. It's now quite a robust service."

Penkridge and Rugeley stations are also being rebuilt. Work started in Penkridge last month on the new facility to replace the current station in Boscomoor Lane, which has been used since 1972. It is scheduled to be operational towards the end of next year.

Chief Fire Officer Peter Dartford said: "Here in Staffordshire we are at the forefront of the UK's Fire and Rescue Service.

"We are developing fire stations that are purpose-designed for our role in the 21st century as a proactive fire prevention service and which are also at the heart of their community, providing modern facilities for local people, local groups and other local services to use and enjoy."

More than 200 groups such as charities and public sector organisations will use community space in the new fire stations.

Police, the NHS, Citizens Advice Bureau and housing associations are among the public services to use the sites as well as creative writing and gardening workshops.

RELIEF AT END OF ROADWORKS

ROADWORKS that have caused chaos in Rugeley and overrun by five months are now finally coming to an end.

Council bosses have thanked shoppers and traders for their patience during the 10 months the works have been taking place. Since the work started last October traders say their profits have plummeted with shoppers and motorists avoiding the town.

By Adam Burling

The £500,000 scheme centres on Horse Fair and Wharf Road, which is the main gateway to the town.

The carriageway is being reduced to single-lane traffic, traffic lights are being replaced with roundabouts and parking spaces are being created within a central reservation.

The project had been plagued with problems – including incorrect signage going up, wrong kerbstones being delivered, and a damaged BT box delaying work. At least 20 businesses have said they are fearing for their future after trade was hit.

Damage

And while voicing relief at the end of the work, they are worried they will not be able to recover.

Vice-chairman of Rugeley Traders Association Angi Cooney, who runs C Residential estate agents, said: "The businesses are now just trying to repair the damage that has been done, pick ourselves up and move on."

Some traders say they could struggle to recover.

Ian Hodgson, of Blueprint Designs, said: "There needs to be a major inquest into what happened.

"We thought it would be finished by May. It will take months to get people back into the town."

Andy Knowles, who runs Ann Murray dry cleaners in Anson Street with wife Jan, said: "We went through the recession and then for two years slowly saw business build up but now it has evaporated.

"We have customers phoning up and apologising, saying they are fed up of being stuck in the roadsworks and battling to find a parking space."

Traders face more disruption next year when Horse Fair will be resurfaced.

Staffordshire County Council's economy leader Mark Winnington said the scheme would provide long-term benefits to the town. He said: "Regenerating our town centres is a vital part of our continued economic growth and the Horse Fair improvements will help to make Rugeley a more attractive place to shop, visit and invest in.

"We have made a significant investment and are pleased to see the completion of the scheme. We would like to thank people for bearing with us while the work has been carried out."

Police in appeal as man goes missing

Steven Edwards – missing

POLICE have issued a plea to trace a man who has been missing from home for more than two weeks.

Officers say Steven Edwards, 28, of Cort Drive, Burntwood, has not been seen since August 11 in the Heathrow area of London.

He is described as white, 5ft 9ins tall and has short, receding, fair hair. He is stocky and has a pale complexion. It is not known what he is wearing but is believed to be carrying a khaki brown rucksack.

Inspector Rachel Joyce, of Lichfield District Local Policing Team, said: "We are growing increasingly concerned for Steven."

Anyone who has seen Steven or has any information on his whereabouts is asked to contact Staffordshire Police on 101 quoting incident number 626 of August 17.

Match kicks off for charity

A FOOTBALL match this weekend will raise funds for the Teenage Cancer Trust.

Graham Tudor, who runs a drama and music theatre school with wife Helen, has organised the match at Huntington sports ground on Saturday (August 30) at 3pm. His team will take on a side put together by an old school friend, whose wife is undergoing chemotherapy.

Each player will pay or raise £50 each to play and spectators are asked to pay a minimum £3 donation.

Musical director retires after 35 years

CHASE Choral Society's musical director Derek Bailey has announced his retirement after 35 years.

Derek, aged 84, formed the choir by amalgamating both a male and ladies' voice choir, with the new set up becoming Chase Choral Society Mixed Voice Choir with around 45 adult members.

Under Derek's directorship, the choir has entertained at town twinning concerts with Datteln, Germany and hosted American choirs.

The choral society has performed at the National Memorial Arboretum at Alrewas and at Birmingham Tattoo and has also supported many local churches and charities at fundraising concerts, with children's choirs performing alongside them.

Weddings, christenings and funerals have now been added to their repertoire. Derek's wife Sheila was lead soloist and their daughter sings with the choir, which will continue from September under a new Musical Director.

A party will be held for Derek at the Conservative Club, High Green, Cannock, on Friday, September 12, followed by a retirement concert the following day when the choir perform with Cannock Ex-servicemen's Male Voice Choir, the Gospel Choir 'Inspiration' and guest soloist Dianne Gunn in a fundraising show to commemorate First World War soldiers. It takes place at St Stephen's Church Bideford Way, Cannock, at 7pm.

Tickets are available from the ex-servicemen's club, Walsall Road, from the Gospel Choir or on 01543 578586.

Legal fight launched over maternity closure

A LEGAL fight is being launched by council bosses to keep a consultant-led maternity unit at Stafford Hospital after staff were told it would close in January.

Borough Council leader Mike Heenan revealed he was talking to lawyers about stopping the closure through the courts. He said health bosses were 'crossing the line' by downgrading maternity services.

The Conservative leader said: "The people of Stafford have indicated clearly that they do not support the movement of consultant led maternity services to UHNS and Wolverhampton. I immediately consulted our solicitors with a view to pursuing a legal challenge."

Under the changes there would only be a midwife-led facility which would only be able to deal with low risk births. Other women will have to travel to either the UHNS, New Cross in Wolverhampton or Walsall Manor.

Ploughing

The UHNS, which is taking over Stafford Hospital as part of moves to dissolve Mid Staffordshire NHS Foundation Trust, says it is ploughing ahead with the implementation of recommendations put forward by administrators.

Councillor Chris Baron is putting forward an emergency motion to the borough council's Cabinet calling for legal action.

Meanwhile Jeremy Lefroy MP has called for a review of maternity services 'as soon as possible'.

He said: "I have contacted the Secretary of State to urge that the scheduled maternity review takes place as soon as possible and that it will not be a fait accompli."

UHNS medical director Gavin Russell said the plans were still to be finalised and insisted bosses would wait for an NHS England review later in the year.

Public can have say at first AGM

A HEALTH commissioning group holds its first Annual General meeting next month.

The public is invited to attend the Cannock Chase Clinical Commissioning Group AGM on September 4. It will include a look at the group's first 12 months and at the challenges ahead and takes place at the Aquarius Ballroom in Hednesford from 6.30-8.30pm.

The organisation's first ever annual report and annual set of accounts will be presented. There will also be an opportunity for people to ask questions.

Those wishing to attend should email cannockccg.feedback@northstaffs.nhs.uk or call 01785 221050.

Meanwhile, there is one final consultation meeting left over proposals to move some health services from New Cross Hospital to Cannock.

It takes place on September 2, at Marsden Room, Wolverhampton Science Park, Glaisher Drive from 6-8pm. The public is invited to have a say.

It is part of the dissolution of Mid Staffordshire NHS Foundation Trust which will see the Royal Wolverhampton NHS Trust takeover Cannock Hospital.

Banner bid by campers

Ceri Watt gets set to work on the giant banner with fellow campaigners

CAMPAIGNERS camped at Stafford Hospital have started creating what they hope will be the world's biggest banner.

Using dozens of bed sheets, the protesters will then inscribe a huge message across the fabric and plan to get an aerial photograph of the banner over the camp.

The image will be used on thousands of postcards which will be sent to the Prime Minister, the Health Secretary, NHS bosses and other public officials.

Campaigners have been camped in the grounds of the Weston Road site for more than a month over the downgrading of the hospital which was deemed financially and clinically 'unsustainable'.

Maternity services are being scaled down, A&E opening hours are being permanently reduced, and children's services will close.

Campaigner Julian Porter said: "The idea is that we give thousands of postcards with this picture on it to the community so they can then send it to Mr Cameron, Mr Hunt or whoever to let them know that Stafford is not happy with what is going on and that we are camped here and are not going away.

March

"We asked for donations of sheets and it has been our Bank Holiday project.

"We plan to take this banner where ever we go. That could be on a march in London or even at a football ground.

"We don't know exactly how long it will be, we are just going to keep on sewing the sheets together.

"We have yet to finalise what the message on it will be – but obviously there is a lot we would like to say to a lot of people."

Salvation Army in plea for donations

THE Salvation Army is running its annual Big Collection and will collecting in the community from September 1.

Members, friends and charity volunteers will be collecting across Hednesford, Rugeley and Burntwood and are urging people to give generously towards its programme of life-changing social and community work.

Registered collectors will be asking for donations door-to-door and will be collecting outside Morrisons Rugeley on September 13.

All funds raised through the Big Collection will go towards supporting the church and charity's work to help people in need.

Rob Westwood-Payne, officer in charge at Hednesford Salvation Army said: "With cuts to the public funding we receive, your donation to the Big Collection is vital to ensure we can continue our work in helping those in need."

All collectors will carry a permit, which can be produced on request and will only ask for cash donations in envelopes or sealed Salvation Army collection tins. Donations can also be made at www.salvationarmy.org.uk/bigcollection

Help offered to students

BUSINESSES and organisations are being invited to showcase their services and products for free to more than 1,500 new students.

They take place in Lichfield Campus on Monday, September 1, in Tamworth on September 2, in Cannock the following day and end at Rodbaston on September 4.

All places taken for Ironman challenge

PLACES for next year's Ironman competition in Staffordshire have sold out within 14 minutes – faster than any other contest of its type in the rest of Europe.

Registration opened at 1pm on Tuesday and by 1.15pm all 1,600 spaces had been snapped up.

Organisers said they were over the moon at how popular the June 14 event was proving to be.

Ironman UK spokesman Waveney Thomson said: "We sold out in 14 minutes.

"We had 8,000 people who were pre-registered. It has been by far one of the fastest selling in Europe. We are over the moon."

Ironman 70.3 Staffordshire will include a 13.1 mile run from Shugborough Hall in Stafford, 56-mile bike ride and a 1.2 mile swim at Chasewater Country Park. The total miles covered add up to 70.3.

Cyclists will set out at Chasewater before travelling through Longdon Green and up to Kings Bromley.

They will then head up to Yoxall, through Needwood and Hanbury, across to Marchington, near Uttoxeter, down past Bagots Wood, towards Rugeley, through part of Cannock Chase and finish at Shugbrough Hall.

Offer on pet microchips

DOG and cat owners are being urged to help protect their pets against going missing at a microchipping event this weekend.

Owners can visit Pets at Home in Cannock or Colton on Saturday or Sunday (August 30/31) to get their pet microchipped for £10. It will also help owners to meet the government deadlines of compulsory microchipping.

The chip is roughly the size of a grain of rice, fits under the pet's skin and contains information about its owner, making it to be reunited should they become separated.

A HISTORY group welcomes Kay Matthews to a meeting tonight (Thursday). She will give a talk on 'A Romp Through 10 Decades' to Cheslyn Hay & District Local History Society. It starts at 7.30pm at the Salem in High Street. Entry is £1, with refreshments.

Football memorial idea shortlisted

The shortlisted design by Rianne Martin

A HEDNESFORD pupil has designed a memorial for the 'Football Remembers' project – and could see it housed permanently at the National Memorial Arboretum.

The design, by Year Eight Kingsmead pupil Rianne Martin, has made the final shortlist in a national competition alongside work by 33 other students.

The memorial aims to commemorate the football match played along the Western Front during the Christmas Truce in December 1914. The 'Football Remembers' project has been organised by the British Council, The Football Association, Football League and Premier League.

The judges are HRH The Duke of Cambridge, President of The FA and Arsenal and England star Theo Walcott.

The winner will be announced in September and the chosen design will then be made into a permanent memorial to be housed at the Alrewas site.

All the shortlisted designs have gone on display along with the other finalists at an exhibition at the Memorial Arboretum. Leanne Baylay, history teacher at the Kings Avenue school, said around 300 Kingsmead pupils created designs.

Rianne's design was chosen from a shortlist of three as the school's submission.

Leanne said: "We feel immense gratitude to all those that fought, showed courage and died during World War One and know at our design shows the respect and admiration for those men and women that they truly deserve."

Expert in visit as part of plan to revitalise town

A REGENERATION expert is to visit Hednesford in a bid to help breathe new life into the town.

Towns Alive is a nationwide lottery-funded and Government-backed initiative and aims to revitalise the area by reinstating markets and reviving original shop frontages.

The group's chief executive Chris Wade will meet the town council and The Heart of Hednesford Restoration Project (HoHRP) on September 4 in a bid to offer support to bosses behind the plans.

By Katy-Rose Meaney

Mr Wade will be given a tour of Market Street, the Museum of Cannock Chase and Victoria Shopping Park to get a feel for the local area before presenting recommendations to traders, business owners and community leaders at Pye Green Community Centre.

Positive

Councillor Brian Gamble said all those involved were delighted to have Mr Wade on board, to bring a fresh perspective on how Hednesford can build on the recent rounds of investment in the town.

He said: "We've had some solid investment in Hednesford and want to use this as a springboard to re-energise our independent traders, and take advantage of the positive community spirit which has been building as a result of this.

"We need to ensure we are making the most of every opportunity to draw more people into our town."

He added: "Our community is set to expand with up to 900 new homes due to be built – we are going to need more amenities to serve this influx of residents, something which we hope will be a further boost for Hednesford traders. We need to come up with fresh, innovative ideas to make the most of this.

"Chris has a true passion for helping towns thrive and has had some great results across the country – this is our chance to tap into his experience and wisdom and take our plans for Hednesford on to a whole new level."

In recent years Hednesford has undergone a £50 million revamp with millions also being spent on Hednesford Park and in 2012 as part of an attempt to bring in new businesses, traders were offered cheaper business rates.

Tea time brings in funds for hospice

A STRAWBERRY tea in Cannock raised more than £400 for a cancer charity.

The event at St Stephen's Church, Bideford Way raised £470.31 for Macmillan Cancer Care.

Sue Jones, of Carlisle Road, Cannock, organised the event to say thank you to the nurses who helped her mother after she was diagnosed with breast cancer four years ago.

"My mum had breast cancer four years ago when she was 70. Throughout her care, the nurses were fantastic and I wanted to do something to give a little back to them.

"Without them I don't think people would cope. They are simply amazing, both at home and at the hospices," said Mrs Jones, aged 44.

Visitors could also enjoy a variety of stalls, including handmade cushions, gifts, crafts and handbags.

There was also a tombola, run by Sue's daughter, 18-year-old Jessica.

Entry to the fundraiser was free and the money was raised through a raffle, with more than 200 tickets sold.

"It is the first fundraising event I have planned but I would certainly like to do more," said Sue.

THE BEST OF PETER RHODES

MORE sightings of unusual names of legal firms. In Sligo, Ireland, a reader discovered Argue & Phibbs.

THERE must be an election coming. Why else would the Government promise a new law to jail those who use non-violent "controlling behaviour" in relationships? It is a promise rich in good intentions and fine sound bites but almost impossible to turn into solid prosecutions. For starters, what about those cultures which regard a wife as the property of her husband? If you can't control your own property, what is British justice coming to? (And if you disagree with that you're insulting my culture).

FIVE miles out to sea in a tiny dinghy, a sailor was rescued by a lifeboat from Dorset a few days ago. He had no lifejacket and no lights and was equipped with nothing more than a bag of food, a US passport and a street map of Southampton. It turns out he was a Bulgarian but surely he has shown all the fearless (not to say brainless) maritime qualities required of any true Brit. I suggest we grant him immediate UK citizenship and full membership of the organisation which provides so much summertime employment for the lifeboat crews, the Birmingham Navy.

DAVID Cameron says every Government policy should pass a "family-friendly" test. So he's abolishing inheritance tax, then? Thought not.

SANDRA Howard, the 74-year-old model and wife of former Tory leader Michael, writes a joyous column about the photograph taken of Lauren Bacall when she was 85 trilling: "Every line on her proud, defiant face is a lesson in how to embrace growing old." No it isn't. Every line is a reminder how unkind old age can be to once-beautiful women. If Bacall or any other former beauty could be magically given the face she had at 35, I bet they'd go for it like a shot. Women celebrating wrinkles is like blokes celebrating an enlarged prostate.

NICHOLAS Parsons declares that he's fed up with scruffy open-necked shirts and says it's time to bring back the cravat. I do hope not. The only person you should trust less than a man wearing a bowtie is a man wearing a cravat.

THE mayor of Rome, Ignazio Marino, has accused our Foreign Office of exaggerating the danger of pickpockets in his city. He may have a point. In my limited experience, the official advice, coupled with dire warnings from tour guides, makes you so paranoid about pickpockets in Rome that you entirely overlook the individuals who will rob you blind, time and again. They are called head waiters.

MY eye was caught by a big, glossy feature on kiddy-carrying bikes. All have some sort of container for small children on the front of the bicycle, which strikes me as the most dangerous end. To some folk, these machines speak of economy and family togetherness. I keep thinking of human shields.

BEING a dab hand with computers and their little ways, I offered to help a friend of a certain age make her online claim for her state pension. Bear in mind, this application process is intended to be tackled by over-60s. First you have to choose a password. Then you wait two days for an activation code and security number. Then you have to input all those numbers and the code and complete a form which takes an average of 20 minutes. If you make one single mistake you have to ring the helpline the next day and try to put it right. Or you can avoid the internet altogether and do it all by phone, which I thoroughly recommend unless you want to drive yourself bonkers.

Toll operators help out charities

THE operators of the M6 Toll are donating £50,000 to charity. Acorns Children's Hospice, Guide Dogs (Sandwell and Walsall) and Troop Aid, Solihull have all been handed cheques for £10,000 from a single day's net toll revenue.

A further £20,000 will be allocated to support community projects over the next 12 months.

Midland Expressway Ltd held a Drive for Charity fundraising event and fun day at the motorway service area, operated by Roadchef, between junctions T6 and T7 at Norton Canes.

Customers could visit stalls and displays about the work of the three charities and there were goodies and balloons for children.

Each of the charities had collection buckets and customers donated a further £500 on the day. The three charities have been chosen by MEL's social committee.

Sarah Knox, Sandwell and Walsall community fundraiser for Guide Dogs said: "The £10,000 from MEL will enable us to provide mobility services for more blind and partially sighted people.

"As a thank you, MEL will have the opportunity to name one of our very special puppies and follow their training journey through our 'Name a Puppy' scheme."

Charlotte Anson, Acorns' new business development officer, said: "We rely on fundraising and donations to keep our services running so this kind of support is vital."

Time on his hands to create unique clocks

By Lisa O'Brien

HIS hobby of making unusual and quirky clocks has captured the imaginations of people around the world.

Electronics engineer Paul Parry has spent the last year creating dozen of clocks from antique boxes, equipment and nixie tubes, which are electronic devices for displaying numerals or other information using glow discharge.

Nixie tubes began to appear in the 1950s and were used in electronic test equipment, petrol pumps and calculators, but manufacturing stopped when LED technology took over.

The father-of-two says he has had to source the tubes from the last remaining stocks companies have kept abroad, buying them via eBay, and he has hunted down bases for his creations from antique shops and fairs.

The 41-year-old has set up a workshop at his home in Gorsey Lane, Cannock, and can spend up to 12 hours a week crafting the clocks.

"I remember seeing them in my childhood and I was fascinated by how they work," he said.

Collecting

"I've always had a fascination for seeing how things work. Even from the age of two or three, I was taking things apart.

"I started making the clocks last year. I like collecting the tubes. You can still get the tubes from various places in Russia and Ukraine. There are a few companies that still have stock even though they have stopped manufacturing them.

"I buy the electronic kits and the bases are old bits of equipment or Victorian boxes. I go to old antique shops or antique fairs."

The glass nixie tube, which is filled with neon gas, contains a wire-mesh anode and multiple cathodes, shaped like numerals or other symbols. Applying power to one cathode surrounds it with an orange glow discharge.

Mr Parry said he started making the clocks for himself as a hobby but has since managed to make and sell around 40 of them as people began showing interest in his designs.

He has also created his own website, www.bad-dog-designs.co.uk to show off his unique creations.

One of his designs acts as a thermometer and uses a lighthouse lamp, while he used a Roberts Digital DAB-FM Radio to create another clock which had been commissioned as a 50th birthday gift.

Mr Parry's old fashioned and steampunk clocks are made from original antique cases which are wood, brass or a combination of the two. He also crafts contemporary clocks from materials such as stainless steel and makes others from original 1960s and 1970s test equipment that originally used nixie tubes to indicate the measured reading.

Mr Parry, an electronics engineer for more than 20 years, added: "I usually start by coming across something which I think might make a nice clock. It can take me an evening to make one, or a couple of weeks.

"The most complicated one was called the Captain Nemo clock. It is my favourite of the ones I have made. I made it out of a Victorian music box and I used a brass curtain pole, doorbells and test tubes.

"That one took three months to build. I made it for myself but someone liked it and bought it from me.

"I've been quietly making these clocks from a spare room in my house which I use as a workshop and I can spend 10 to 12 hours a week doing it.

"I've made 40 or 50 of them so far and I've sold them to people all over the world. Everyone who sees the clocks falls in love with them."

The nixie clocks can sell for up to £500.

Expert's advice on wildlife pictures

KEEN photographers can sign up for a new course to learn how to take better wildlife pictures.

Expert David Rees is inviting students to learn advanced photography techniques at Staffordshire Wildlife Trust's Wolseley Centre headquarters near Rugeley.

The four week course starts on September 8 and enthusiasts will cover topics including camera controls, light and flash and composition.

Sam Pachner, the trust's conference and events officer, said: "This is a great chance for amateur photographers to get the best out of their cameras.

"At the end of the course we want as many people as possible to be getting outdoors and capturing amazing photos of the wildlife in our county."

To take part, participants must have already taken the introduction to photography course at the centre.

The course costs £50 per person with a proportion going towards the work of the trust, looking after the wildlife and open spaces on 26 nature reserves across the county.

Pogo bringing Sexty back for record bid

Mr Pogo Jack Sexty

EXTREME fundraiser Jack Sexty could this weekend bounce into the record books for a third time this year. He will aim on Saturday (August 30) to record the fastest mile on a pogo stick.

In April the 24-year-old Masters student, from Penkridge, became the first to pogo an entire marathon.

His latest attempt in Helsingborg, Sweden, will boost funds for Alzheimer's Research UK. Jack hopes to add to the £1,000 his exploits have already raised.

Jack became affectionately known as 'Mr Pogo' after completing the Greater Manchester Marathon on a pogo stick in 16 hours and 24 minutes. His efforts landed him two Guinness World Records – the longest distance pogoed in 24 hours and fastest marathon on a pogo stick.

Jack's latest challenge will take place at the grand finals of the showpiece extreme pogo event Pogopalooza. The clock will start as soon as Jack mounts his stick. No falls are permitted and the timer will stop as soon as he completes the mile.

The record of 12 minutes 16 seconds is currently held by New Yorker Ashrita Furman. Governing body Xpogo will sanction and verify his record attempt for Guinness World Records.

Jack, a journalism student at Staffordshire University, said: "It's going to be tough and I'm putting in the training to make sure I don't disappoint. Once again I will be fundraising for both Alzheimer's Research UK and the Royal Manchester Children's Hospital.

"A close relative is battling Alzheimer's so the charity resonates with me and my family."

Jodie Vaughan, community fundraising manager at Alzheimer's Research UK, said: "We're proud to have a record-breaker associated with the charity and we wish him all the luck in the world for his latest record attempt."

County branded 'useless' over alarm funding cuts

THE leader of Cannock Council branded his county counterparts as 'absolutely useless' after the authority cut funding for pendant alarms for the elderly and vulnerable.

Around 2,000 residents currently get the alarms for free but Staffordshire County Council is withdrawing funding in a bid to save £214,000.

Cannock Chase Council agreed to step in and fund a scaled-down version.

Speaking at a meeting to approve the funding spend last week, Cannock Council leader George Adamson said:"It is an absolute disgrace and I am ashamed to be a member of Staffordshire County Council.

"Hundreds of people are going to lose this service because the Conservatives at Staffordshire County Council can't manage their finances. They are absolutely useless.

Councillor Paul Snape, the district's Conservative leader, said: "I am not going to try and justify what has happened, it is wrong.

Forward

"You cannot cut funding from people who can't look after themselves. I want to thank the council leader for putting the money forward for this service."

Cannock Council agreed unanimously to spend £107,000 to maintain the service until April next year. Councillor Adamson said the authority could only afford to pay for a fund a scaled-down version and up to 600 residents would have to pay up to £86 a year to get one.

A further £117,000 will be spent on the service from April 2015 which will provide free alarms for 1,350 residents who meet the criteria of being over-70 and in receipt of a disability-related benefit.

Action plan on reducing pollution

COUNCIL bosses have agreed to draw up an action plan to reduce pollution along a busy route in Cannock.

An assessment of the air quality along the A5 Watling Street in Cannock, near the Churchbridge interchange, has revealed that levels of nitrogen dioxide regularly pass the average mark.

The route is used by thousands of drivers a day, the report showed.

Cannock Chase Council's cabinet approved the move to launch an action plan to see how pollution can be reduced.

One possibility is to give money to businesses so they can buy more environmentally-friendly vehicles.

Norton Canes Councillor Mike Holder said: "It means the air quality in the area is reducing because of the impact of traffic.

"It's a pity but looking forward this plan will make improvements.

Council leader George Adamson said: "The sooner we bring this in the better."

The action plan will suggest other measures that can reduce pollution.

IN MY VIEW

with Mark Andrews

YES, celebrity biopics seem to be all the rage at the moment. And ITV's tribute to the late Tommy Cooper was one of the most poignant and moving things on television this year. But the Cilla Black story? Really, really, isn't that just stretching things a little bit too far?

As far as I'm concerned, the Cilla Black story essentially boils down to this: made a noise like a strangled cat for a few years, then went on to spend the 1980s presenting two of the most dreadful, cringe-making programmes ever to appear on our television screens.

If that's what they call 'original, quality drama', then I must be Twiggy.

INCIDENTALLY, Cilla says she knows Sir Cliff Richard is innocent of an allegation of sex abuse, because she 'has known him for a million years.'

Well. I knew they were both knocking on a bit, but I have to say that came as a little bit of a surprise.

❐❐❐

THE NHS, provider of free medical care from cradle to grave. Unless it's dentistry, it seems. During my last visit to an NHS dentist, I was told that I needed a crown. And that it would cost £290.

How much? When they said the NHS was 'free at the point of delivery', I though they meant free of charge. Not three-hundred quid.

TRYING to drum up support for the by-election for the West Midlands Police and Crime Commissioner last week, a leaflet came through the door bearing the words: "The criminals of the West Midlands will be hoping you stay at home on August 21."

Yes, it's a lovely sentiment, democracy, power to the people and all that. But cynical Black Country man that I am, I can't help but thinking that many of the criminals of the West Midlands were hoping that people would go out and vote on Thursday. So they could burgle their homes while they were out.

WHAT would you say is the biggest problem gripping Europe at the moment? The crisis in the Ukraine? Or what about the barbaric activities in Iraq and Syria?

Nah, the European Union has immediately grasped the number one threat facing us all. From September 1, there will be a ban on the manufacture or importation of all vacuum cleaners with motors more powerful than 1,600 watts.

Apparently, it is about saving the environment. Although I doubt it will do much for the environment of the houses which are now being forced to use puny vacuum cleaners.

Still, those Eurocrats, they know what they're talking about. Wouldn't want their maids getting ideas above their station, would they?

Clive next to Prince Harry, with fellow Invictus athletes

Clive on duty before the explosion

Cliv was the face of the 2012 Poppy Appeal

Helmand hero on his bike for Britain

MARK ANDREWS reports on a soldier who lost both his legs and has become one of Harry's heroes

CLIVE Smith was lying on the ground amid a thick cloud of dust after a roadside bomb had exploded in Afghanistan's Helmand Province.

"I tried to get up, and kept falling over again, and I thought 'this is a bit weird'," he recalls.

But he quickly discovered why he couldn't get up – the explosion had taken away both his legs.

"I didn't feel it at the time," says the soldier, who had just been promoted to the rank of Lance Corporal.

"I was looking around to see who was injured, it was another three or four minutes before I realised it was me."

That was in October 16, 2010. Now, almost four years on, the 28-year-old was welcomed by Prince Harry as one of the 130 British representatives at the launch of his inaugural Invictus Games, an international sporting event for wounded, injured and sick service personnel.

Clive Smith in training for his cycling event at the Invictus games

Training

Clive, from Rugeley Road, Hednesford, will represent Britain at cycling in the games at the Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park in London from September 10 to 14. In all, more than 400 competitors from 14 nations will take part .

Clive, who has been training three days a week after securing a place in the England cycling time trials squad, says it was a privilege to meet the Prince.

He says: "The games are Harry's baby and it was really nice to meet him and speak to him about my training.

"He asked each of the 130 squad members how they were getting on and joked with us all which was nice. My training is going really well and I am going out on the bike three to four times a week."

Clive, who was serving with 33 Engineer Regiment when he was injured in the Nahr-e Saraj district of Helmand, said the Help For Heroes and Royal British Legion charities played a huge role in helping him find rehabilitation through sport.

During April 2012 he spent a week involved in adaptive sports and adventure training at the Battle Back Centre, Lilleshall for the recovery of wounded service personnel.

"I tried a bit of everything, wheelchair basketball, rock climbing, bowling, but it was cycling where I really found my niche." The training for the Invictus Games is tough, but Clive is quietly confident he will be able to give his best when the games begin.

"The most I've done in one session is 70 miles so I think I will be fine when it comes to the games," he says.

"Being at the launch was fantastic and it was great to be back in the company of some of the guys who I met in rehab. I am really looking forward to it."

When Prince Harry launched the games he congratulated those who had made the British team saying, "These men and women have achieved so much already but being selected for this team is another significant milestone in their life beyond injury."

He said the games were not just for those taking part, but for the 'wider family' and added that the team would not just be competing for themselves but for their 'mates'.

Lance-Corporal Smith was leading his men on a routine foot patrol when he suffered his injuries.

He walked in front of the patrol, sweeping the ground with his Vallon detecting machine in a bid to locate roadside bombs.

It later emerged that the device had been cunningly made with a low metal content, reducing the chance of detection.

Disregarding their own safety, his comrades dashed to give him medical treatment, applying tourniquets to his damaged legs to stop the bleeding.

Battlefield

"They saved my life," he says. "If they hadn't done what they did, I wouldn't be here."

The soldier was evacuated from the battlefield, treated at the British field hospital at Camp Bastion, before being flown back to Birmingham's Queen Elizabeth Hospital, which has its own special military wing.

Five weeks later, Clive was beginning the gruelling recovery process which now enables him to walk on two artificial legs.

He was chosen as the face of the 2012 Poppy Appeal, and earlier this year Cannock Chase District Council named a road after him.

In November last year, the keen Wolves fan also achieved his lifelong dream of walking out onto the pitch at Molineux, before the League One game against Stevenage.

And, despite his life-changing injuries, Clive says he has no regrets about his chosen career in the forces.

"I have had 10 wonderful years, and I wouldn't have changed it at all," he said.

WEEK IN POLITICS

with Daniel Wainwright

IT was disheartening to see the war of words between Tory MP Chris Kelly and Labour councillor Pete Lowe over the Black Country flag.

Mr Kelly reckons organisers of the hugely-successful Black Country Festival should have sourced them locally, or at least in the UK, rather than from Taiwan. Councillor Lowe, standing as Parliamentary candidate in Stourbridge next year, makes the point that there was not a lot of time to get so many flags and that we happened to see them flown all over the world in the run-up to and after the festival.

But then he slightly spoils it by saying: "Why a millionaire Tory would want to try and pick fault with the best community-led festival in years is beyond me."

That's a bit of a cheap shot. An MP is entitled to his opinion whether he's wealthy or not. And it is nothing to do with which political party he's from either. Labour MPs such as Warley's John Spellar have championed producing things in Britain too.

I don't agree with Mr Kelly's point, although I can see where he's coming from. After all, when we're flying the flag for an area that's proud of making things, it's ironic that it carries a label saying it's made in Taiwan.

However, he is probably nit-picking unnecessarily when you consider just how good the festival was and what it's done for pride in where we're from and what we've achieved.

But one of the best things about it was how it was a real community effortbacked by councillors of all parties in all boroughs,This was an event all about celebrating our common ground. What a shame it's been used as a political football.

One thing I'd like to see the new police and crime commissioner for the West Midlands David Jamieson to do is lobby the Home Office for a change in the legislation on what happens when a 'vacancy' occurs.

I use the quote marks because that's a rather clinical and unfeeling way of describing the death of an incumbent. Bob Jones had only passed away a few hours before councillors were forced to discuss the process for a by-election owing to a rule within the Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act that required it be held within 35 days.

That left us in the situation of people going to the polls in August when a lot of people are away. Those who were around to vote weren't interested in doing so. A little more time to plan the election, spread the word, hold public meetings and explain what the role is even for might have made a difference.

As it stands the Government will be able to shrug off the poor turnout as being the time of year, rather than a sign that, two years on people still don't really know what the PCC role is all about.

Praise as pupils score highly in GCSE exams

PUPILS have been celebrating their GCSE results – with those at a Cannock independent school achieving a 100 per cent A*-C pass rate, including maths and English.

Jackie Williams, vice principal at Chase Grammar School, off St John's Road, said: "It just shows what a team effort can achieve and with such a good set of results our students have plenty of choice for the next stage in their careers.

"Naturally we are very proud of their achievements."

Congratulating students, Staffordshire County Council councillor Ben Adams said: "GCSEs are a solid foundation for any future career, and young people up and down the county will see their hard work recognised.

"I want to congratulate them, and wish them every success in the future whatever path they take."

Thrilled

At Cheslyn Hay Sport and Community High, 77 per cent of students achieved five GCSEs A*- C, for the fourth consecutive year.

Headteacher Nicky Crookshank said: "We are thrilled with this year's results which are due to the high quality of teaching and strong student support we have at Cheslyn Hay.

"The grades are a testimony to the hard work and commitment of the students, staff and, of course, the parents."

Results at Chase Terrace Technology College were better than ever as 66 per cent of students gained five A*-C GCSE passes, including English and maths, an increase of eight per cent on last year.

Three quarters of students achieved a high grade, C or better, in English and 79 per cent achieved at this level in maths. Headteacher Dr Stuart Jones said: "I am delighted for the students and staff, who have worked so hard for these excellent results."

Head Michael Burrowes was full of praise following the results at Cardinal Griffin School in Cannock. Some 59 per cent of students achieved five A* to Cs grades including maths and English. Mr Burrowes said: "The pupils worked hard for their exams and they received their rewards with the results."

Following on from its outstanding A-Level results, 86 per cent per cent Abbots Bromley School students achieved A* - C grades in five subjects or more including English and maths. Many scored a 100 per cent success rate.

Airport is an insult to tourists

IN the last 20 years I have been to many Greek islands, this year I went to Kos. I have seen some poor airports but the one at Kos is a disgrace and is an insult to tourists.

Where we stayed, a few yards off the port, many pavements were dangerous to negotiate, there were holes where trees had been removed and deep holes where slabs were missing.

Where has all the money from tourism gone? I am sorry to say that the Greeks are taking tourists for granted, and I will not be holidaying in Greece again.

Attack the bus pass at electoral peril

MANY readers have signed the national 'Love the Bus Pass' petition.

On September 10 a small delegation of pensioners and disabled people will deliver the first 100,000 signatures to 10 Downing Street. The second instalment will be delivered a week before next May's General Election.

The petition, approaching 90,000 pen-on-paper signatures, is the first major step for this non-partisan campaign to get all major parties contesting the General Election to pledge to retain the England bus pass as a universal entitlement free at the point of use. The campaign is supported by the National Pensioners' Convention, and is underwritten and organised day-to-day by its Walsall branch.

The problem is, while all major parties pledged before the 2010 General Election to keep the pass, high-ranking coalition politicians soon started to call for 'reform'.

In mid 2012, the Press reported that David Cameron, if returned in 2015, would legislate to abolish the pass in its present form. This January, he refused to commit to retaining it.

The huge social, economic, health and wellbeing benefits of the pass are at risk. Politicians of all parties need to understand that they attack the bus pass at their electoral peril.

Readers can request petition forms and more information by email, for printing off and signing, (richardvworrall@yahoo.com); by phone (01922 641084) or post (46 Winn House, Walsall, WS2 8NW), with name and address and campaign material will be posted out.

Patients in safe hands at hospital

RECENTLY I had to attend Stafford Hospital for a hernia operation and after all the bad publicity over the last few years I was quite apprehensive.

However, I have to say after my experience that I could not fault the hospital at all and I would reassure anyone due to attend there that they are in safe hands.

All the staff from the receptionists to the nurses, from the anaesthetists to the surgeons were all friendly and pleasant, informative and very efficient.

The hospital itself seemed very clean and spotless and well managed.

So, I would say a big thank you to everyone there for the care I was given and hopefully the hospital has a long and bright future.

Why park on pavement?

CAN someone tell me why do cars and vans park on pavements? We have to endure this when we have prams, wheelchairs, etc. How are we supposed to get around you, walk in the road? Why can't you park properly and allow us to use the pavements? I suppose if we all started pushing prams and wheelchairs in the road you would make a fuss?

Too many enjoy free rail travel

IN a week when we are told that rail fares are due to rise by six per cent I thought it worthwhile to relate my latest experience of rail travel.

My husband and I had tickets for 'Wicked' at the Hippodrome and decided to travel by train. We caught the train in Hednesford, where the ticket machine has not been commissioned.

Normally, a ticket collector comes down collecting fares but we travelled all the way without being asked to pay and left New Street without being checked.

After the show we returned to the station and purchased two tickets from a machine. At no point were our tickets checked.

I wonder how many other free journeys are enjoyed each year – and whether – if the train companies made a better and more efficient job of collecting existing fares – this might prevent the wholesale increases which are now planned.

Young girl upset after money taken

THIS letter is to the person, who on Monday, July 28, picked up a £10 note that was not theirs and did not hand it in at the shop. You know who you are.

My granddaughter took her saved up pennies to change into a £10 note. She didn't want to spend it on a new toy, she said she could have lots of toys second hand for £10. She had been saving since Christmas.

We know she lost it in the shop we were in as she put it in her pocket when she got there. We asked and looked around but was told no, it had not been handed in.

So, just to say you left a little girl of eight years old upset for two days. If you have a heart you can just take the £10 and hand it back to the girls in the shop and they will give it back to her, but you won't.

Thanks to all for Pink Tea Party fundraiser

BEVAN Lee Community Partnership would like to say a huge thank you to everyone who attended the Pink Tea Party charity event that was held on August 10 at Bevan Lee Community Centre.

The response we had from local shops donating raffle prizes was tremendous so a big thank you to all of them. Also to friends and family for taking time out to bake cakes for us to sell.

The final total raised was £500 which exceeded our expectations and will be greatly appreciated by the Breast Cancer Care charity organisation.

Repairs vow follows complaints over road

Perry Fellows from P Fellows butchers shows Councillor Paul Fisher the damaged surface

COUNCIL chiefs are to carry out a revamp of road around shops in Rugeley after fears were raised that they were dangerous.

Service roads to the shops and flats at St Michael's Drive, Brereton, have been earmarked for work under £24,000 proposals.

Concerns were made by residents and shopkeepers about the poor condition of the surface at the front and back of the shops

Cannock Chase District Council is investing the cash after a string of complaints from traders.

The proposals have been welcomed by shopkeepers and ward councillors who say the state of the roads is not up to standard.

Potholes

Perry Follows runs P Follows Butcher's and said traders had even joined forces to help get temporary work done to fill in some of the potholes.

The 48 year-old said: "It has broken up quite a lot. There are some potholes at the front and back. I think all the shops will welcome work."

Brereton and Ravenhill councillor Paul Fisher said resurfacing and remedial action was needed.

"It is a nightmare," he said. "There have been a couple who have fallen. It is dangerous."

As part of the proposals it is also planned that the former garage site in St Michael's Drive is maintained by the council and for future residential development.

Council leader George Adamson said work would begin in the coming weeks, adding: "There is no reason why we can't get going as the work needs to be done."

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Brian Stanley feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 5 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done.

We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service Wolverhampton and the surrounding area and Brian is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Brian a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Schoolgirl arranges fun fundraiser

Organiser Ellie Goddard-Hayden, aged 12, at the fun day with with Boris and Jolly Joey

A SCHOOLGIRL organised a fun day in memory of her relatives and to raise money for Cancer Research. Ellie Goddard-Hyden, aged 12, helped arrange a bungee run, bouncy castle, bucking bronco, stalls and auction at Featherstone Community Centre.

Music was provided by the Dirty Roxx band.

The Cheslyn Hay High School pupil wanted to do something following the death of two of her grandparents, Alan Rollinson from Little Bloxwich, from lung cancer and Susan Hyden, who fought against bowel cancer.

The youngster had previously helped to organise a coffee morning and a seven mile walk from Little Bloxwich to Cheslyn Hay, bringing in more than £1,100. It is hoped over £400 will be collected from the fun day.

Rail line subsidy agreed

COUNCIL chiefs have agreed to subsidise trains between Cannock and Birmingham for an extra year.

The Chase Line, which runs through Cannock, Hednesford and Rugeley, is currently funded by Centro, Staffordshire County Council and Cannock Chase District Council.

The district council says the Department for Transport (DfT) had been due to take over the cost of providing half-hourly evening services and enhanced Saturday services next March. However the authorities say they have now been told there is 'no prospect' of the government doing so before 2016.

The DfT says there was no agreement that it would take over funding.

At a district council Cabinet meeting last week, members agreed to subsidise the services until the current London Midland franchise ends in March 2016. Council leader George Adamson said: "It is vital that the additional services are maintained and this council will contribute its share until March 2016."

The majority of the Chase Line rail services are funded by DfT.

The current contributions towards additional services are £146,000 a year from Centro, £39,000 from the county council and £10,000 from Cannock Chase.

Patrols to curb spitting in street are launched

STREET patrols will be launched across Cannock Chase next week to catch people spitting in the street.

On-the-spot £50 fines will be handed out by council environmental health officers to those caught in the act.

Three environment enforcement assistants are being briefed on how to dish out the fixed penalty notices before the new law comes into force on Monday, September 1.

Fines will be handed out to spitters in the same way they are for littering or dog fouling.

Cannock Chase Council's environment chief, Councillor Carl Bennett, said it was going to be a challenge but added the majority of the public supported the idea.

"Spitting fines will be coming in on September 1," he said. "The existing environmental officers working for the council will dish out these on-the-spot fines.

"If the officers see someone spitting in the street they will issue an on-the-spot fine. It might be the case that they take a picture of the spit on the ground.

"We clean up dog mess, litter and graffiti but nothing seems to be done about spitting.

"I want this to be a deterrent. I want Cannock to be a nice place for people to visit and a town that people respect."

Council leader George Adamson previously said there was 'massive support' for the move. Only a handful of local authorities across the UK have brought in the legislation since an original nationwide ban which then carried a £5 fine was rescinded by the government in 1992.

Sports project cash boost

Community recreation officer Debbie Pearce, Clive Gibson, sports activator and Jake and Angela Burnyeat of Chase Sports Ability Group

A PROJECT to help people with disabilities get into sport has received a £60,000 boost.

The National Lottery grant has been awarded to Chase Active from Sport England's Community Sport Activation Fund.

It will be spent on offering those aged over 16 with physical, learning, sensory or cognitive disabilities the chance to try a range of sports.

The project will be based at Chase Leisure Centre. It will also include an outreach and centre-based sports programme, supported by a sports activator role.

The project is due to start in September and in total £106,000 will be spent over the next three years. The project is run on behalf of Cannock Chase Council by Wigan Leisure and Culture Trust (WLCT).

Bowls match fundraiser

A BOWLS match raised £300 for the Teenage Cancer Trust in memory of Stephen Sutton. The match between Hagley Bowls Club and the Chase Inn, Rugeley, generated £300 for the appeal in honour of the 19-year-old from Burntwood.

Delight over tidy-up at overgrown churchyard

Working at the site at St John's Church, Heath Hayes, are Councillor Christine Mitchell, grounds maintenance team leader Claire Jones, officer Jack Powell, Chris Simm and Mark Aston of Craftsman Gardeners

COUNCILLORS say they are delighted with the transformation at an overgrown churchyard following a four week clean-up.

Cannock Chase Council last month agreed to formally adopt the graveyard at St John's Church in Heath Hayes and stumped up £10,000 to clean up the site. It followed complaints by angry mourners, who had resorted to cutting the grass themselves.

At a cabinet meeting in July culture boss councillor Christine Mitchell admitted the graveyard was in a 'state of disrepair' and apologised to families.

Officials now say real progress has been made to the grounds of the Hednesford Road site to bring it back to an acceptable standard.

Concrete

The grass, which was higher than most headstones a month ago, has been strimmed and cut. Hedges have been pruned back, concrete panel fencing replaced and additional fencing put in.

Councillor Mitchell said: "When the council formally adopted the churchyard on July 17, our grounds maintenance team were on the job the very next day. I'm delighted with the work that has been carried out so far and the huge improvements that have been made."

Council leader George Adamson said: "What a difference, the churchyard has been transformed. There is still work to do but the council will ensure that it is maintained properly."

The graveyard closed as a result of being full in 2011 and the Parochial Church Council handed responsibility over to the district council but the formal adoption has been hit by delays.

Fundraisers make a charity splash

Taking the challenge are Katie Maughan, Anna Cooper, Scott Cooper, Tracy Fry, Donna Maughan and Nick Tully

PUBGOERS took the plunge to raise money in memory of Stephen Sutton. A group ice bucket challenge helped create a splash at a fundraising event for the Teenage Cancer Trust on Monday.

Around 500 people attended the event at the Drill Inn, Springlestyche Lane. A total of £2.056.10 was raised – with one group raising £200 from the Ice Bucket Challenge. Live acts included Pollen – a young band with Stephen's former schoolmates Will Schmidt and Corey Furnival – TFI The 90s and Tyler John performing as Gary Barlow.

Landlord Tony Tully said they wanted to 'keep Stephen's spirit alive'. He added they were hoping to run the event again next year and also planned to launch Christmas cards featuring a picture of Stephen sitting on Santa's lap.

Update blood laws says MP

'OUTDATED, illogical and unequal' rules that ban sexually active gay men from donating blood need to be reformed, says a Tory MP.

Former party vice chairman Michael Fabricant, whose Lichfield constituency includes Burntwood, wants the Government to change a law that dates back to the 1980s and the initial outbreak of HIV and Aids. The rule bans gay men who have not been celibate for at least 12 months from donating blood.

The MP said: "In January last year, parts of England and Wales came within three days of running out of a blood group. With outdated, illogical and unequal rules for blood donation, such crises are likely to recur.

"Safety for the donor and recipient of blood transfusions must of course be respected, but fairness and equality need to be considered too."

He says the regulations discriminate against gay men and that since the approval of same sex marriage, rules on blood donation should be revised.

Said Mr Fabricant: "If a gay man practises safe sex, and can prove he does not have HIV, why should he not be able to donate?"

Lives are on hold says mother of victim, 20

THE mother of a popular bar worker left fighting for his life after a town centre attack says it is a 'miracle' he survived.

Josh Morgan is still 'extremely ill' following the attack in Cannock in the early hours of March 9. His mother Clare Simpson has thanked the community for its support.

The 20-year-old was left in a critical condition and is now in a rehabilitation unit, able to communicate only by using a buzzer and blinking.

Mrs Simpson said the family's lives had been 'put on hold' – but the community's support had helped them keep going.

Victim Josh Morgan

Buzzer

She said Josh is believed to have an understanding of what is happening but can only blink or use a special buzzer to say yes or no and revealed that strangers had been approaching her in the street offering her help.

Mrs Simpson, who runs a vintage shop in Cannock, said: "We want to thank the whole community for the love and support that has been shown to us.

"We have been amazed by the generosity of each and everyone that has supported us. We still do not know what recovery Josh will make but with rehabilitation we continue to hope and pray for him to continue moving forward.

"Josh is still extremely ill but is showing signs of improvement."

Alistair Douglas, aged 24, of Longford Road, and James Robb, 21, of Langdale Green, Cannock, have pleaded not guilty to causing grievous bodily harm with intent and will reappear at Stafford Crown Court.

Crowds brave rain for Josh fundraiser

Cookie the clown with Abby Sayers and Suzanne Hooson

CROWDS of people braved the rain for a fundraising day in honour of Josh Morgan.

The 20-year-old was left in a critical condition after being attacked in Cannock town centre earlier this year. He is now in a rehabilitation unit and can only communicate using a buzzer and blinking.

The rain failed to deter crowds of residents turned out at the Shoal Hill Tavern in Cannock where Josh worked. Bands, stalls and games formed the fundraiser, which was organised by family friend Abby Sayers.

An appeal page has been set up and more than £900 has already been donated.

Miss Sayers said: "We want to thank everyone who has supported the fundraiser. We have received so many donations so far. We would like to list them all but there are so many kind hearts out there."

She added: "Every penny really will help, in ensuring him and his families journey to recovery, is a comfortable one."

The event also included a raffle, face painting, bouncy castles and a penalty shoot-out.

Festival on fringe of being annual event

MUSICIANS, artists and charity stalls formed the backbone of Cannock's first ever fringe festival.

Organiser Jonathan Floyd hopes the inaugural event will grow into annual occasion and rival the likes of Edinburgh.

The Caffe Del Nino owner had organised the festival on August 16 having previously staged Open Mic nights at the High Green cafe.

Talent was showcased at the cafe, in Market Place and at the town centre bandstand.

Jonathan said: "We were compelled to give a platform for all the incredible talent we have discovered in the Cannock Chase area.

"Our regular monthly Open Mic nights introduced us to so many gifted musicians and we have used Caffe Del Nino to display some of the amazing artwork and crafts of the local community."

Musical acts included Chicken Shack Boogie Boys, Arran Page, Ben Westwood, Steve Spartacus, Rob Hill, Sandy and Create:Church.

Local artist Bob Catterall performed a live graffiti wall demonstration and Caffe Del Nino hosted a wealth of artwork.

Cannock Lions, Newlife and the Stroke Association were represented with stalls in the street, while Barista Bros, in association with Cafe Del Nino, sold speciality coffees.

A bouncy castle and merry-go-rounds kept the children entertained during the live performances.

Jonathan added: "This year's Fringe was a great success and we hope both the people of our area and the arts community will catch the bug for a regular summer festival that grows into something much bigger.

"We will be discussing the 2015 Cannock Fringe Festival with the local arts community and planning an amazing event next year that involves music, drama, poetry, dance, photography, sculpture, painting, crafts and including contemporary like artforms tattoo art and graffiti.

"We intend to make Cannock a centre of art and culture that becomes renowned throughout the country," he added.

To get involved with the 2015 Cannock Fringe Festival contact Jonathan Floyd at Caffe Del Nino, telephone 01543 437430 or email jonathan.floyd@rocketmail.com

Charity is looking to fill vacant trustee role

A CHARITY in Rugeley is looking for a new trustee. The vacancy has arisen for the Hopkins Sneyd Almhouse Charity.

In accordance with its Articles of Incorporation, the charity provides accommodation for local people with housing needs. It is currently responsible for 37 flats at Sneydlands and eight properties in Church Street. There are also plans for a further three bungalows in Fortescue Lane.

The Aspire Group has been appointed as managing agent and the charity is looking for someone to help develop its work.

Those interested should consider themselves enthusiastic and committed and be able to work with others. They must be willing to attend around five afternoon meetings each year with the occasional ad hoc event and can also be looking to broaden their experience, or CV, while working for the benefit of others.

By Charlotte Lilley

Contact chairman Rev Preb Michael J Newman on 01889 582149 or at staugustinesrugeley@o2.co.uk before September 20 or Aspire Group governance manager Rachel Challinor, rchallinor@aspiregroup.org.uk, on 01782 854762.

Quiz night held in aid of church

QUIZ buffs can test their knowledge in Rugeley next month. Rev Jan Brittle will pose the questions at the Church of the Good Shepherd, Hislop Road, on September 17 from 7.30pm. Entry is £2 per person for teams of four. Refreshments will be served and there will be a raffle.

Obstacles in way of cancer fundraiser

Staff members Lisa Finney, Adam Hitchman, Richard Nolan, Mathew Howell and Mike Garrington

MORE than a dozen staff from a Rugeley firm are to take on a 10K sponsored obstacle run in aid of Cancer Research UK.

Around 15 staff from Rugeley-based GDM Heat Transfer Limited, a specialist manufacturer and re-manufacturer of high quality aluminium heat exchangers, are taking on the challenge on November 1.

The run involves mud, trails and various obstacles and takes place at Stanford Hall, in Lutterworth, Leicestershire.

Marketing manager Lisa Finney, aged 30, said the group was hoping to raise as much as possible. She said: "It will involve a combination of three types of off-road running.

"We will be taking on different obstacles and will be going through lakes. It will be quite a challenge. A lot of the lads have been doing a lot of training."

She said the group had collected around £60 in donations so far and the firm would be approaching suppliers for support.

Close shave for pair in fundraising effort

TWO Cannock fundraisers underwent a close shave to raise money for a cancer charity.

Kayleigh Schaefer, aged 28, and Alex Dakin, 21, shaved off their locks for Cancer Research UK at a fundraising day at Cannock Cricket and Hockey Club on August 17.

More than £1,500 was raised through a raffle, football tournament, cakes, face painting, barbecue and an auction.

The winner of the auction paid £400 to have the honour of shaving off their hair, helped by Pure Hair and Beauty in Hednesford.

The fundraisers said they were 'overwhelmed' by people's generosity. Mr Dakin said: "The charity is one which is very close to both our hearts and we are overwhelmed with the donations. The total funds raised now sits at £4,100 which has surpassed any target we had."

Kayleigh added: "We are overwhelmed by the generosity that everyone has shown for such a great cause."

Anyone who wishes to add to their fundraising efforts can donate through Just Giving www.justgiving.com/kayleigh-schaefer1/

Flowers laid at club as tribute to hockey boy

FLORAL tributes have been laid in memory of a keen teenage hockey player. Cannock Hockey Club have also retired Jeevan Singh Dhanda's number 55 shirt.

The 18-year-old from Walsall died almost a week after being found injured on rail tracks near Birmingham New Street earlier this month.

He was a member of Cannock Men's Hockey Club and people have been paying their respects at the team's base. A book of condolence has been opened.

A statement from the Cannock Hockey Club Committee said: "Jeevan was a lifelong member of Cannock Men's Hockey Club and a very polite and intelligent young man.

"Notwithstanding his ability on a hockey field he is the sort of member who we, rightly, should be very proud of."

The teenager was a pupil at Queen Mary's Grammar School in Walsall and was due to study economics at the University of Leeds in September after securing three A grade A-Levels

It is thought he fell from a bridge at the station on August 7, He later died at Queen Elizabeth Hospital.

Floral tributes to Jeevan

A second man, a 30 year-old from Birmingham who was also found injured after suffering injuries 'consistent with a fall' also died.

Jeevan's family said he was a loving son and brother.

In a statement they said: "Our lives will never be the same without him and we were privileged to have had him for a short 18 years."

Club teeing off to mark 21st birthday

GOLFERS will be teeing off to celebrate a club's 21st anniversary next month.

Cannock Park Golf Club is hoping to attract 100 players to its anniversary open on September 21. The club opened in 1993 and currently has around 100 members.

Club captain Wayne Morgan said everyone was looking forward to marking the special occasion.

He said: "It's a special year and we wanted to make sure we celebrated it in style. This is the biggest event of the year for us.

"We are a club that is open to the public, not private, and we are often complemented for how good condition the fairways and greens are in."

Prizes up for grabs at the open include a free round for four people at The Belfry in Sutton Coldfield. A hole in one will win a brand new Suzuki car. Entry is £25 for non-members.

The course features 18 holes and a practice putting green. Mr Morgan added: "We are always looking for new members and this competition will give people the chance to play here to see if they like it."

Anyone interested in playing should contact the club on 01543 578850.

Jobs boost as leading sports store opens up

SIXTEEN jobs have been created as a leading sports retailer opens a new store in Cannock.

The Sportsdirect.com store will open this weekend at Wyrley Brook Retail Park, Bridgtown, taking over the 7,000 sq ft unit previously occupied by Allied Carpets.

The company, founded in 1982, is the UK's number one sports retailer with more than 400 stores nationwide. The Walkmill Lane branch will be unveiled on Saturday (August 30).

To celebrate the launch, there will be a host of opening, including Sondico footballs for £1, 10 per cent off footwear, buy one get one free on Slazenger polo shirts and T-shirts, and a free bag for life on a £20 or over spend.

A spokesman said: "We are delighted to be opening our new store in Cannock. As our company continues to grow throughout the UK, our ethos has never changed in that we offer our customers the biggest brands in all types of sportswear, footwear and sports equipment at low prices."

Cannock Chase Council leader George Adamson said: "This is great news for Cannock and it is going to create more jobs in the area.

"It's positive that it's another national chain for the town as well."

Golf club fundraisers

CHASE Golf Club has named St Giles Hospice as its charity of the year. All club captains will jointly raise money for the cause during the course of the year.

The Ladies and Seniors sections have nine mixed golf charity competitions throughout the year. Lady captain Marlene Painter is also organising events for Breast Cancer, including the Pink Day Golf competition on September 3. On September 5, the Pottal Pool club hosts a concert with a tribute to The Eagles. Tickets are £10 with proceeds to Breast Cancer Care.

On September 29, the club stages a Macmillan coffee and cake morning, open to non-members. An event for St Giles takes place on October 9 at Essence of the Orient, Stafford.

Cancer care plans are labelled dangerous

A UNION leader has accused health chiefs of conducting a 'dangerous experiment' with plans for cancer and end-of-life care in Staffordshire to be managed by private firms in deals worth £1.2 billion.

Health chiefs across the county have teamed up with experts from Macmillan Cancer Support to overhaul the way services are managed with 10-year contracts worth £689m and £535m up for grabs.

Virgin, Care UK, Ramsay Health and other private firms are said to be interested in bidding for the contracts in a move which has been dubbed as 'privatisation by the back door'.

By Mark Andrews

However Unison assistant general secretary Karen Jennings, voiced serious concerns about the proposals.

Miss Jennings, a former nurse, said: "This is beyond a dangerous experiment – it's treacherous – a privatisation too far even for this Government.

Experience

"We are not talking about peripheral services. The contract is for end-of-life care and the broad range of cancer services, including the treatment and care of children suffering from cancer.

"And none of the companies in the running have the experience of dealing with this breadth of services."

She told a public meeting in Burton-upon-Trent that the commissioning groups were potentially handing over all decision-making on these crucial services to private companies.

"This is much bigger than just asking private companies to provide a service, this is asking them to design the whole system. With profit as the main driving force, how can it not lead to problems?"

Andrew Donald, chief executive of both Cannock Chase and Stafford and Surrounds commissioning groups, said the Transforming Cancer and End of Life Care programmes were about bringing services together to create an integrated approach.

"Patients have told us about not knowing who to turn to in a crisis, leading to inappropriate and unnecessary admissions into hospital," he said.

"We have heard from patients and carers who have been lost in the system, or who have struggled to get the support when and where they need it – this is clearly not acceptable.

"It's about putting the patients at the centres of the process – it is not about privatisation."

Interest rate rises a risk to economy, claim

THE economic recovery remains fragile and should not be put at risk with interest rate rises, a Chase business chief has said.

The annual rate of UK inflation rate fell more than expected in July as the cost of clothing, footwear, food and non-alcoholic drinks eased.

The Office for National Statistics (ONS) said Consumer Price Index (CPI) inflation fell last month from 1.9 per cent to 1.6.

But CPI remains well above average wages which grew by just 0.6 per cent in the three months to June.

Chris Plant, Director of Cannock Chase Chamber of Commerce, said: "The welcome fall in inflation confirms that the increase in June was temporary and doesn't signal a new upward trend. While wage increases remain very low and the pound is still relatively strong, we expect inflation to remain below the two per cent target.

"Although the recovery remains on track, it is still fragile and now is not the time to put it at risk with premature interest rate rises.

"We must nurture the business confidence we are seeing at present by giving businesses the security of working in a low interest rate environment.

"The government should reinforce this stable backdrop by introducing measures to help firms access the finance they need to grow, and by enhancing support for our exporters."

Teachers form a football team at the end of the 1970s

Rolling back the years as Smestow alumni sought

FORMER pupils and teachers at a Wolverhampton school are being invited to meet up and share memories at a grand scale reunion event to mark its 50th anniversary.

Smestow School in Windmill Crescent threw open its doors in October 1964, originally to cater for the overspill from Regis School in Tettenhall.

Over the years the school has quadrupled in size and now caters for around 1,000 pupils from Castlecroft and the surrounding areas.

To mark the occasion the school will be hosting a reunion day for students and teachers who have walked the corridors during its 50-year history.

Headteacher Martyn Morgan said he hopes to get as many former pupils to the event on October 18 and is encouraging people to bring old photographs, videos, or any memorabilia to help everyone reconnect with old faces.

MEMORY LANE

By Peter Madeley

Smestow alumni include BBC's Formula One presenter Suzi Perry, BBC Midlands Today presenter Satnam Rana and Barnsley footballer Sam Winnall.

Ex-pupil Richard Green, who is helping to organise the reunion, said: "The day is all about meeting up with old school pals and teachers and chatting about old times.

Converted

"The school has changed a lot over the years, but there has always been a real community spirit there.

"I recently went back to the school for the first time in a number of years and it certainly stirred up a lot of good memories. Hopefully plenty of former teachers and students will join us on the day."

Another former pupil, John Bateson, who left the school in 2001, said he was looking forward to seeing former pals he has lost touch with over the years.

This year the school converted to academy status and is set to open £9.6 million worth of new facilities, including a sports hall and a new teaching block.

The event is set to take place between 11am and 5pm on October 18, with teachers and students from different eras staggered throughout the day.

Attendees can visit at any time during the day, but the school has allocated specific time slots to enable people to meet their contemporaries. They are: 11am to 1pm, staff and students who attended between 1964 and 1980; 1pm to 3pm, 1981 to 1995; 3pm to 5pm, 1996 to present day.

A memorial garden to former staff will be open from 1.30pm onwards.

To register to attend the event visit smestow.org and click on the 'peel me' sign in the top right corner of the screen. Alternatively e-mail smestow50@smestow.org for more details.

Horsepower – the dramatic award-winning photograph, Racing For Home, taken by Paul Hassell at Dunstall Park

THIS stunning photograph, capturing the speed and excitement on the track at Wolverhampton Racecourse, has helped Cannock Photographic Society land the top prize in a prestigious competition.

'Racing For Home' was taken by keen snapper Paul Hassell from the back of a start truck during a harness race meeting at Dunstall Park.

The night sky provides a backdrop for three riders and their horses as they race up the track. Mr Hassell described taking the picture as one of the most exhilarating experiences of his life. "I was fortunate enough to have the experience of being on the start truck at this event at Dunstall Park," the 49-year-old from Cheslyn Hay said.

Experience

"The event ran into a night meeting hence the dark background.

"For me this to date has been the most exhilarating experience by far."

When he captured the picture at the all-weather racecourse, Mr Hassell was standing on the back of the starting truck which was travelling at around 25 miles per hour. He added: "The horses were probably around six feet away.

"Shortly after the image was taken the truck builds up speed to around 35 miles an hour to pull away from the riders as the race begins. It is amazing to see."

Cannock Photographic Society took first place at the Photographic Alliance of Great Britain Inter Club DPI Championships in Warwick in July.

The society was founded in 1953 and today has around 90 members.

PICK OF THE WEEK

Reece plays it straight in a new police drama

Comedy can be a funny business. One minute you're at the top of the tree, the next you can be forgotten, a spent force no longer able to raise a smile.

When the Monty Python TV series ended, nobody knew what the future would hold for its members.

Some observers thought they may vanish without a trace, but in fact, they all went on to enjoy varying degrees of success – for them, the sum of the whole was not greater than the parts.

The same could be said about the League of Gentlemen team. Jeremy Dyson (the one everybody always forgets about) has enjoyed success in the fields of writing and directing, while Steve Pemberton is an instantly recognisable character actor and Mark Gatiss is a loveable polymath.

For a while it seemed that Reece Shearsmith might not reach the heights of his colleagues, but in the past year that's all changed.

Inside Number 9, the series he wrote and starred in with Pemberton, was a resounding success, and he also reinvented himself as a dramatic actor with roles in the horror movie A Field in England and on the small screen in The Widower.

He's playing it straight again in new series Chasing Shadows, ITV, 9.00pm.

"I'm probably what you would describe as a character actor and I do immerse myself in the parts," says Shearsmith.

"I don't get recognised a lot because I'm usually disguised on screen. "I quite like the level I'm at where I can have a normal life and walk around. The work is the thing that speaks for me. I'm not really a personality, I just do the acting and that's what I want people to see."

That may all change if Chasing Shadows is a major success and returns for another series after this initial run of four episodes.

The Hull-born actor reckons it could continue. "I'd love to do more. I think it's only the start of what could be a really interesting journey for all of the characters. There are so many stories that could be told."

Shearsmith plays DS Sean Stone, a misfit who struggles to deal with people and is reassigned to a missing person's unit after offending his boss.

There he meets Ruth Hattersley, who learns to deal with Sean's odd quirks and habits, and quickly realises how useful he could be when it comes to finding lost souls.

Alex Kingston portrays her, and Noel Clarke has been cast as their boss, DI Prior.

Their first case involves the disappearance of 16-year-old schoolgirl Taylor, and will be told over two nail-biting episodes.

She's initially thought to be a routine runaway, until Sean discovers she had a dark secret and was logging into internet forums about suicide.

We won't give away what happens next, but Sean's attention to detail enables him and Ruth to uncover something very shocking indeed.

It's an unforgettable story, and after it has been broadcast, you can bet that Shearsmith won't be able to stay anonymous for long.

Don Warrington, Adjoa Andoh, Alfie Field, Lynda Baron, Myriam Acharki and Imogen Daines also star.

Reece Shearsmith stars in Chasing Shadows, Thursday, ITV, 9pm

BEST OF THE REST

MONDAY
Long Lost Family
ITV, 9pm
It may be an award-winning, emotionally wrenching TV series, but we're almost glad Long Lost Family is coming to an end this week – our tear ducts need a break. They'll get one final workout this week though as we meet 53-year-old Sandra Macdonald, who was given up for adoption as a baby. Growing up in Edinburgh, she never felt fully accepted by her adoptive family, and at the age of 15 she decided to search for her biological mother. She began her journey at the offices of the church organisation, where she was told that her mother had sinned and wouldn't want to be reminded of her transgressions. Now the Long Lost Family pick up the case.

Alex Polizzi: The Fixer
BBC2, 9pm
The hotelier and entrepreneur returns to help more struggling firms, this time finding solutions for certain critical issues that lead to the closure of many companies. She begins by visiting Paul Walker, who set up a micro-brewery in the heart of the Devon countryside, but has seen his finances spiral out of control and his family life begin to suffer. Alex shows him how to capitalise on the growing popularity of British real ale overseas, with a trip to Paris revealing interesting export opportunities for his products.

TUESDAY
Dogs: Their Secret Lives
Channel 4, 8pm
Dogs are pretty great creatures. They love hanging out with their human buddies and don't seem to have a care in the world – or do they? We wouldn't normally associate canines with mental health issues, but the final episode of this eye-opening series suggests that some of their most extreme behaviours could indicate they are suffering from certain issues, including obsessive compulsion and chronic fears.

In the Club
BBC1, 9pm
Jasmin is furious with Dr Bellingham for inducing her labour, worried whether her marriage will survive if the baby turns out to be white – and things go from bad to worse when she encounters Jack in the hospital after his fight with Dev. Kim is left to mend her fractured relationship with Susie and Neil following the revelation that Jude is the father of Rosie's baby, while Diane and Rick are optimistic as Hope is taken off the ventilator. Kay Mellor's drama, starring Taj Atwal, Sacha Dhawan and Jill Halfpenny.

WEDNESDAY
Our Zoo
BBC1, 9pm
New series. Drama based on the true story of the Mottershead family, who made a huge personal sacrifice to establish Chester Zoo in the 1930s – despite staunch opposition from the locals. Lee Ingleby stars as ex-serviceman George, still haunted by memories of the First World War and frustrated that he and his family have to live with his parents. An animal lover, he is unable to stand by while an unwanted monkey and camel are put down in the quarantine bay at the docks, so he houses the animals in his mum and dad's backyard. The family think he is losing his mind – but for George it's the spark of an idea. Liz White, Anne Reid, Ralf Little, Stephen Campbell Moore, Amelia Clarkson, Karl Collins and Sophia Myles co-star.

Our Zoo, Wednesday, BBC1, 9pm

THURSDAY
Dallas
Channel 5, 10pm
As series three kicks off, Sue Ellen is busy planning John Ross and Pamela's wedding. And what's the first rule of celebrations in soap land? That's right, they never go off without a fight. In this case the groom clashes with Bobby over their joint ownership of Southfork Ranch. As if that's not controversial enough, he also begins an affair with Emma. Meanwhile, Elena is back, and it seems her relationship with Christopher is beyond repair. Veteran favourites Linda Gray and Patrick Duffy star with Josh Henderson, Jordana Brewster and Jesse Metcalfe.

FRIDAY
Boomers
BBC1, 9pm
The friends gather for Joyce's retirement party, where John has made a tribute video – but forgotten to ask Trevor for his tribute – Maureen latches onto a trendy young couple at the party and Alan has bad news that might ruin proceedings – unless the guest of honour spoils it first by confronting her neighbour about her kids' unruly behaviour. Alison Steadman and Philip Jackson star in the sitcom, with Russ Abbot, Stephanie Beacham, Paula Wilcox and James Smith.

Grimefighter TV star Lew Carrington

Come and meet our dentist Polly

As part of improvements for the patient experience at North Street a general dentistry practice works alongside the denture prescribing team.
"This one-stop service has always been the case, but people are still finding out about North Street Dental Clinic," said principal Steven Burchell DipCDT RCS(Eng) GDC108353. Dental surgeon Polly (GDC No 188090), a Doctor of Dental Medicine with a particular interest in restorative, cosmetic and paediatric fields, looks after the patients. She joined the team in Dudley after working in Michigan at one of America's most prestigious cosmetic dental centres.
A dental plan practice, it offers everything from a simple filling to complex restorative procedures and implant dentistry.
Initial consultations are complementary.

Lew gets last laugh with failing teeth

LEWIS Carrington was born to be a star. A natural funnyman, he won the nation's hearts in the TV documentary Grimefighters.

Known as Lew to his friends, he laughs easily as he recalls his brush with fame and as the unlikely adopted ambassador for the city of Wolverhampton.

Topping 1,500 members of his Grimefighters' Fan Club on social networking website Facebook, Lew had his supporters clamouring for him to appear in the New Year's Honours list.

Still a well-known character on the city streets four years after sharing his unique take on life before the cameras, Lew is now enjoying retirement from his life of grime and a cameo appearance on Harry Hill's Get Toasted.

But hidden beneath the smiles and priceless one-liners, the jovial comic genius was struggling with another often-comedic subject – dentures.

And indirectly, the former environmental waste operative owes his celebrity status to an ill-fitting set of them. "I could have retired from the council earlier, but wanted to save enough money to get my problem fixed," says Lew.

Wife Gill adds: "He'd seen the stories in the papers about how other people had their problems sorted out and had also done a lot of internet research."

Lew, aged 67, of Wednesfield, was cared for by Steven Burchell Dip CDT RCS(Eng) GDC108353, principal at the Denture Clinic and Jonathon Pugh BDS MSc (Implant Dentistry) GDC 62663, principal of Total Implant Solutions in Tettenhall Road, Wolverhampton.

Friendly staff

The two clinicians share a long-standing working relationship.

Says Lew: "I was using a bucket-load of fixative just to keep my teeth in. They'd be okay for half-an-hour and then they'd be dancing all over the place.

"My top denture wasn't too bad, but the lower moved all around with eating and laughing was risky. I'd had the trouble for years – every time I'd have a bit of tough steak, I was done for.

"I was a bit apprehensive, but I need not have been. I had two implants to stabilise my lower denture and I never felt a thing. I expected a lot of discomfort, but after a couple of days I was absolutely fine.

"Steve made me the over-dentures for the bottom and a new top set of teeth. They are absolutely great. Nothing was too much trouble for any of the friendly staff and going to see Steve was a pleasure.

"Going to the dentist had never been so good and I am over the moon with the results."

On his star role in Grimefighters, Lew recalls: "There were some funny moments. We'd had a call to pick up a dead cat in Penfields. They said the animal was on the end of a drive. I looked everywhere and couldn't see it.

"There was a charity collection going on in the road where people had left clothing in bags for pick up. By the time I'd found out that the cat had been put into one of them, it had been collected by the charity and the van was disappearing down the road.

"Somebody was gong to get a surprise," adds Lew with a wry smile.

One L of a pick-up

By David Banner

The L200 does the lifestyle pick-up thing better than any other model.

It offers more adventurous styling and high spec versions called Warrior and Barbarian with lots of equipment. The underlying vehicle is more of a mixed bag. Build quality and road manners could be better but the L200 is manoeuvrable, tough and looks like good value for money.

Whichever L200 model you choose, and there are quite a few of them, there's a 2.5-litre common-rail injection diesel engine up front doing the hard work. In standard form, this engine turns in a healthy 134bhp and torque of 314Nm at 2,000rpm but a high power option is also available that tickles the output up to a macho 175bhp with 400Nm at 2,000rpm in manual form. This latter unit is capable of hitting 62mph from standstill in 12.1s before rumbling on to a 111mph top speed.

The less powerful L200s take 15s to reach 62mph and will eventually attain 103mph. The five-speed manual gearbox comes as standard but a five-speed automatic is also offered that features a Sport mode.

The L200 rides on a no-nonsense ladder frame chassis with multi-link front suspension and heavy duty leaf springs at the rear. It's the standard set-up in the pick-up world and what it lacks in finesse on the tarmac it makes up for in strength and ability in the rough. Pick-up ride quality always leaves something to be desired compared to 4x4 passenger cars but the L200 doesn't do too badly.

Some pick-ups have entry-level front-wheel-drive versions but not the L200. Whether it's the Easy Select 4WD system on the entry-level models or the Super Select 4WD set-up on the range-topping versions, all have all-wheel-drive. Easy Select models should be run in 2WD mode in normal conditions with a locked 4WD mode selectable on low friction surfaces.

The Super Select is an advanced full time 4x4 set-up similar to that found in Mitsubishi's Shogun. It allows the L200 to be driven in 2WD or fulltime 4WD mode on the road without the excessive wear and tear suffered by part time systems as a result of transmission wind-up. In slippery off-road situations, a further 4WD mode can be selected which maximises traction by locking the centre differential. Both of the systems are operated by the traditional and rather clunky lever sited alongside the gear stick which seems slightly dated when compared to the dash-mounted dials used by rival manufacturers.

Extensive

There are three basic bodystyles to mull over. The single cab is reserved very much for businesses that need a proper old school working pick-up. Its traditional two seats and extensive 2,220mm load length mean it prioritises cargo over cabin and it's only offered in the base trims. The second option is the Club cab. This is for single cab customers who might occasionally need to transport more than one passenger. It offers a 1,805mm load length with additional capacity behind the cabin's front seats for secure storage or to seat a couple of small ones.

Most L200 customers opt for a double cab body, a variant offered in any trim level you like. This is a four-door five-seater model with a decent amount of legroom for the rear passengers and seat backs angled at a comfortable 25 degrees. There has to be a compromise for this extra passenger space and it comes in the shape of a modest 1,325mm load length in standard guise. The solution is the Long Bed version of this model with an extra 18cms of load length.

Whichever L200 bodystyle you choose, it will have a 1,085mm load width, a capacity to carry in excess of 1,000kg and a 2,700kg braked trailer towing limit.

The L200 trim level range reflects its goal of catering for business and private buyers. You have 4Work models at the base of the range equipped only with the basics. That means CD stereo, steel wheels, and the basic Easy Select 4x4 system. 4Life is a little plusher with air-conditioning, electric windows and keyless entry but still has the utilitarian feel. Beyond that, we reach the high series L200s, double cab versions dubbed Warrior and Barbarian. These are the bigger sellers and the models that really crossover between business and pleasure usage.

All of the high series L200 models feature the M-ASTC traction and stability control system as standard which is a really useful addition. The Warrior also features 17" alloy wheels, body-coloured wheel-arches, cruise control and climate control.

The Barbarian is actually rather civilised, adding a colour screen satellite navigation system, a reversing camera, full leather trim and numerous styling accessories.

Still cutest car money can buy

By Paul Naylor

With a more powerful TwinAir engine, an up-scale trim level slotted in and an interior with a smart digital instrument display, the Fiat 500 has evolved. One thing hasn't changed – it's still the cutest city car money can buy.

Fiat has taken the opportunity to refresh the 500. Wisely the company has left the styling largely unchanged and has instead concentrated on updating the technology, making the car yet more efficient and giving the customer more choice when it comes to engines and trims. The headliner is the fact that Fiat has introduced a 105PS version of the popular twin-cylinder 875cc TwinAir engine. This engine uses the same technology pioneered on the Italian brand's MultiAir units, replacing the camshafts of a four-valves-per-cylinder unit with electro-hydraulic control of the inlet valves, allowing the engine to breathe more efficiently.

As before, there's an 85PS TwinAir offered that gets to 62mph in 11 seconds, but the 105PS car is usefully quicker. Combined with a six-speed manual gearbox as standard, it develops 145Nm of torque at 2,000rpm in Sport mode, gets to 62mph in 10 seconds and on to a top speed of 117mph. You'll also find rear disc brakes fitted, as opposed to the drums on the lower-powered car.

Aside from the two TwinAir engines, 500 customers can also choose from a rather breathless 69PS 1.2-litre petrol and an altogether more satisfying 95PS 1.3 MultiJet II Turbo Diesel. Both TwinAir engines are also offered with the Dualogic gearbox. Two driving modes are offered – Standard and Eco. In Eco, torque is restricted and the steering lightens up, which makes low-speed manoeuvring even easier. Press the Sport button in the 105PS TwinAir model and the 'eco' display transforms into a turbo-boost gauge. It's a very slick touch.

The interior of the 500 offers a beautifully pared-back look and feel but this time round there's a genuine piece of modernity in the dial pack. A seven-inch TFT digital instrument display replicates the retro aesthetic of the analogue dials, with speedometer, rev counter and trip computer all easily read.

Image

The centre of the display – which contains a digital image of the car – can be configured to show various trip computer readouts, such as distance travelled, instant fuel consumption and range. The screen can also display media player and telephone readings and, when fitted with a TomTom 2 LIVE satnav system, navigation information also appears in the display, including junction graphics and real-time traffic updates.

The build quality feels decent with surprisingly sturdy controls. Any doubts about the mechanical integrity of the complex TwinAir engineering should be laid to rest by the fact that it uses a similar technology to Honda's impeccably reliable VTEC system, insofar as it uses engine oil as hydraulic fluid in a rugged and elegant solution that's not overly expensive to build. Retro green and three-layer white paint finishes are now offered and the S model is available with a striking blue. Revised alloy wheel designs, seat fabrics and leather upholsteries complete the updates.

As before, pricing sits mainly in the £10,000 to £14,000 bracket for the hard top version, but Fiat has found a huge proportion of buyers wanting to pay figures towards the top of that range – and beyond. Hence, a greater range of options for customers who aren't particularly price-sensitive when it comes to their 500.

The Cult trim represents the top of the 500 hierachy which starts with 'Pop' and rises through 'Colour Therapy' and 'Lounge' to '500S'. Most go for the Lounge models which are still equipped with features like 15in alloy wheels, a fixed glass sunroof, Blue&Me connectivity, a leather steering wheel with remote controls and air conditioning. If you want the Convertible 500C model, there's a £3,000 price premium to pay. As with all 500 models, a high level of safety equipment comes as standard, including anti-lock brakes with electronic brakeforce distribution, seven airbags (including a driver's side knee bag), ISOFIX attachments and daytime running lights. ESP stability control with anti slip regulation and Hill Holder is also available.

To be honest, Fiat hasn't needed to do a whole lot to retain the 500's popularity. It still looks great, it's always been fun to drive and as long as the pricing doesn't get too ambitious, the market remains there for it.

In driving seat with surprising Volvo V40

By James Parker

The Volvo V40 is a slick and wholly convincing family hatch. Where V used to mean 'estate' in Volvo nomenclature, this time round it's a five-door spin-off of the C30 coupe with a broad range of engines and some delightful interior detailing. Prepare to be surprised.

Most British-bought V40s will deliver diesel drive via the four-cylinder 115bhp, 1.6-litre unit we're looking at here, as fitted to the entry-level D2. It's no ball of fire of course – 60mph takes 11.7 seconds on the way to 118mph – but it's as fast as most will need it to be and 270Nm of torque means you won't have to row the car along with the gearlever in town, an environment where, the V40 is very much at home.

Here's a hatch clearly developed by people who care about driving.

The result is a very good compromise indeed of absorbent ride and assured handling composure.

You can always spoil it if you want to by opting for a 'sports' chassis that offers firmer springs and dampers, and lowers the ride height by just under half an inch, also lowering the centre of gravity.

The D2 model is capable of a headline-grabbing 78.5mpg on the combined cycle and a 94g/km of CO2 reading that'll side-steps the need for road tax and payment of the London congestion charge.

To put that into perspective, at the time of launch, a comparable 109bhp Mercedes A180 CDI managed 55.4mpg and 136g/km.

Even BMW's eco poster pin-up model, the 116d EfficientDynamics, struggles to get close.

Sleeker

The latest Volvo XC60 is more smartly styled these days – particularly at the front where there's a much sleeker look. But the important stuff lies beneath the bonnet.

The AWD D4 diesel model in RDesign trim that almost all buyers choose offers a sophisticated and efficient engine, namely a 2.4-litre five-cylinder unit now upgraded to 181bhp.

There's also a £1,500 option of automatic transmission with a Geartronic six-speed gearbox.

The D4 AWD manual model will return 53.3mpg on the combined cycle and 139g/km of CO2, which is actually very good by class standards.

The latest styling changes comprise a redesigned front featuring a re-sculpted bonnet.

The Swedish company has made a concerted effort to remove any black trim pieces from the exterior to create a more upmarket, cohesive look.

The XC60 also benefits from an interior upgrade. There are now better quality wood inlays, a plusher headlining, textile B-pillars and there are also some very well finished silk metal frames around the air vents and light controls.

The rear seats remain a little higher than the front pair to give better visibility for children and the two outer seats in the back can be specified with two-stage booster cushions.

The interior feels very airy courtesy of some serious glazing overhead, the laminated glass panorama roof being one of the biggest in the sector.

The load opening at the back is also the widest amongst the XC60's direct competition, opening to reveal a 480-litre capacity.

As in the XC70, the rear seat is a three-piece affair that folds 40-20-40, with each section capable of folding down completely flat.

Clear move from diesels

New car buyers are moving back towards petrol engines after years of diesel domination, if Ford's latest sales figures are any guide.

The company has revealed that its multi-award-winning 1.0-litre Ecoboost turbocharged petrol engine now powers one in every five cars sold in Europe, totalling 120,000 vehicles from January to the end of June.

That figure is an increase from 104,000 1.0-litre Ecoboost-powered cars sold in the same period in 2013.

Within the statistics there is a clear move away from diesel in some sectors, with the B-Max showing 47 per cent of sales going to the smallest Ecoboost unit. One third (33 per cent) of Focus buyers also went for the same engine.

"Customers are clearly enjoying the benefits from a small engine that offers great fuel efficiency with no compromise to refinement or performance," said Barb Samardzich, chief operating officer, Ford of Europe.

"The range of models offering the 1.0-litre EcoBoost engine will rise to 11 when the all-new Mondeo is launched in the coming months, and the new 140 PS version in the Fiesta Red Edition and Black Edition shows there is even more potential."

The engine is the first to win the international Engine of the Year accolade three times running, and is available in 99bhp, 123bhp and 138bhp versions according to model choice.

Fight for the hottest SUV

Land Rover is taking the performance SUV fight to Porsche as the Brit luxury car maker has unveiled a 550 horsepower version of its popular Range Rover Sport.

The car, which is being launched at the prestigious Pebble Beach concourse event, is the fastest, most powerful Land Rover ever produced and the first to wear the SVR designation being adopted by future Land Rover and Jaguar high-performance models.

The Range Rover Sport SVR accelerates from 0-60mph in 4.5 seconds and boasts a top speed electronically limited to 162mph plus a Nurburgring Nordschleife lap time of 8 minutes 14 seconds– one of the fastest times ever recorded by a production SUV.

Exhilarating

Commenting on the new model, John Edwards, managing director of Land Rover's Special Operations, said: "The Range Rover Sport SVR is a natural progression beyond the core vehicle's outstanding on and off-road capabilities and leading-edge design. Its exhilarating performance will satisfy a particularly demanding customer set.

"A thorough range of revisions specially developed by Land Rover's Special Vehicle Operations combine to make this premium derivative even more distinctive both inside and out, as well as taking its dynamic capabilities to the next level without impacting on comfort, refinement or all-terrain versatility.

"The Range Rover Sport SVR is truly the world's most capable performance SUV."

Customer orders can be placed from October 2014 at an on-the-road price of £93,450 with first deliveries expected in early 2015.

NOTICE TO READERS
Please be aware that when purchasing a puppy there are some simple guidelines you can follow to ensure that you are not purchasing from a Puppy Farmer:

2. Do not arrange to collect a puppy from any other location than that of the breeder.
3. Ensure that you are given any KC documentation, if pedigree.
Whilst Midland News Association publications take great care to avoid publication of advertisements from Puppy Farmers we cannot accept any liability should readers purchase from this kind of establishment.

10 is perfect in pre-season victory

Cannock 10 Belper2

Hockey

CANNOCK continued their pre-season preparations this weekend with a home fixture against Conference side Belper.

There were still several established players absent but the majority of new players and a smattering of young hopefuls swelled the ranks.

This fixture allowed Cannock to try new tactics and give the coaching team chance to see players in action.

The first part of the game was fairly even as both sides settled into their respective patterns of play. Cannock stuck first with a clinically executed penalty corner from Pete Jackson, but this was soon cancelled out by a similar corner from Belper. Cannock went ahead when Chris Darnley's reverse cross found Alex Edmundson to put them back in the lead.

A lack of concentration in Cannock's defence presented Belper with another equaliser.

However, this was the last time Belper would share the spoils. Cannock stepped up a gear and their superior fitness and quality started to tell. Cannock netted a further eight goals to record a very satisfying 10-2 win.

This week Cannock's preparations continue with a trip to Southern Conference side Cambridge.

Many of the first team squad began their playing days as part of the Cannock junior section and have achieved national recognition as a result of being trained throughout the ranks.

Cannock have a tremendous history of success at regional, national and representative levels and welcome any juniors who want to be a part of one of the Midland's most successful clubs. The junior training times for the new season are as follows: U10 and U12 training is Thursdays, 6-7pm; U14 training is Tuesdays, 6.30-8pm; U16 and U18 training is Thursdays, 6-8pm.

If any players would like any more information they should contact Ian Gardner on recruitmentatchc@gmail.com.

Senior players wishing to join the club should make contact via the website link www.cannockhockey.org or attend Club Training on Tuesdays, 6.30-8pm.

Six goals but only one point for Hayes

Loughborough 3
Heath Hayes 3

HEATH Hayes came away from Loughborough with a hard earned point but it could have quite easily have been three in a match which produced six goals.

Hayes went ahead midway through the first half when Dave Waple converted a penalty after Lloyd Dunnit was upended.

The second half was only two mins old when Hayes made it 2-0 when Arrowsmith scored from close range.

Hayes looked comfortable until the 70th min when they let in winger Webb to hit a cross shot into the far corner of the net.

Loughborough then went all out for the equaliser and got it with five minutes remaining, again through the outstanding wingerWebb. However, with two minutes of normal time remaining Hayes thought they'd won the game with a fantastic move and goal coming from a 12-yard curler into the top corner by Chris Geldart.

Then with the referee failing to blow for time Loughborough's John Hill hit an 18-yard screamer into the top corner giving Burns no chance.

Athletes brave the rain for 10k run

ONE hundred athletes – including runners from Yorkshire and Dorset – braved the Bank Holiday rain for the second Rugeley 10k fun run.

The turnout was particularly impressive given the downpour the runners had to endure as they ran around the mixed terrain course along the Heritage trail towards Marquis Drive visitor centre on the Chase.

The event was organised as a fundraiser for Rugeley Open Spaces Association, which aims to preserve and manage open spaces in the Rugeley area and maintain St Augustine's field.

The men's race was won by Gareth Briggs from Leek in 36 minutes, 22 seconds with Lisa Knight from Stafford winning the women's race in 46:23.

Charity director Martin de Ridder said: "We were delighted by the turnout given the conditions. This is the only Rugeley based 10k event so we are determined to make this bigger and better every year.

"I am grateful to all who took part as well as our team of volunteers. In particular I would like to thank George Gaye of WLCT/Rugeley Leisure Centre and Dan Berry Fitness and Martial Arts for sponsoring the event."

Pitmen plans dented as injuries mount up

Gloucester City 0 Hednesford Town 0

HEDNESFORD Town's best laid plans to secure a first away win of the new season after a maiden victory against Harrogate last week were severely dented.

By half time at Whaddon Road Glenn Walker hobbled off with an ankle injury and then influential midfielder Kris Taylor had to depart with a dead leg.

Football

Walker's troubles looked worse than that of Taylor's but, with Steve Diggin and James Hurst already out for the majority of September, The Pitmen will be cursing the gods at such a run of bad luck involving key players.

The game had started positively for Hednesford as they looked to avenge last season's woeful 5-1 thrashing and a jinking run from Walker culminated with his cross striking the upright on two minutes. Marvin Robinson then shot straight at Mike Green when through on goal 15 minutes in.

Jamey Osborne saw his looping header fall onto the roof of the net on 20 minutes before going down clutching his troublesome shoulder shortly afterwards and, after the departure of Taylor and Walker, replaced by Dominic Della and Tom Peers respectively, Gloucester captain Billy Jones made an outstanding last ditch tackle on Peers as he bore down on goal just before half time.

The hosts had threatened sporadically during the opening 45 minutes, with Danny Glover making a brave block on a rasping Adam Connolly shot which squirted a foot wide but as the second half began it was Hednesford again who looked most likely to score.

Darren Campion cut in from the left and shot narrowly over and, after substitute Peers had been booked for dissent, the Chester loanee almost capped his encouraging debut with a goal when he won a free kick down the right and Osborne delivered a superb cross. Robinson saw his bullet header brilliantly saved at full stretch by Mike Green but Peers could only hit the rebound into the side netting from a tight angle.

Gloucester proved they were still a threat and Jamie Ashmore had to make a fantastic defensive header underneath his own crossbar after a succession of corners before Mann's shot from distance was beaten clear by Crane.

The Pitmen's Francino Francis had the ball in the net from another quality Campion ball in but the linesman's flag was raised quickly. The big chance came in stoppage time as Alex Melbourne's cross was only partially cleared but Glover, in space at the back post, volleyed over.

Award is Taylor made for coach Steve

HEATH Hayes first team boss Steve Taylor has named as Coach of the Year by FA chiefs.

Taylor picked up the accolade at the Staffordshire regional awards at Burton Albion's Pirelli Stadium. Despite keeping Hayes in the Midlands Football League Premier in his debut season, it was for his work at grass roots level that he was honoured.

The former Crystal Palace pro, who also lists Hednesford, Chasetown and Kidderminster Harriers among his clubs, has been a recognised coach of younger players for a number of years. He was instrumental in setting up Chase Athletic Juniors before it became a feeder club for Heath Hayes and coached one of its young sides before his appointment to the first team.

Prizes were also given out to for volunteers and Charter Standard clubs and there was an outstanding achievement award. FA bosses judged nominated entries before making their decision.

Taylor, who was was handed his prize by John Wells, said: "I feel very honoured to have won this award. But it's really for all those who give up their hours across the country and don't receive the recognition."

Cannock Town FC picked up the Charter Standard Development Club of the Year.

Boukari to face three months out

LUCKLESS Wolves winger Razak Boukari is set to be out for another three months.

Boukari has undergone an operation to repair the torn hamstring he sustained against AFC Telford pre-season. It was initially thought he would be out for six weeks.

Wolves head of medical Phil Hayward said: "Rather than a straightforward hamstring injury, it's actually a tear to the connective tissue between two of the hamstring muscles.

"It's going to be three months following surgery before he's back in training.

"We've asked if it's something he's particularly prone to and the surgeon thinks it's just unfortunate."

Lambert is delighted at defence

BOSS Paul Lambert has praised Villa's new-look defence after they made it successive clean sheets to start the Premier League season.

The 0-0 draw with Newcastle followed an opening-day 1-0 success at Stoke.

Villa are yet to concede a goal this season, with new signings Philippe Senderos and Aly Cissokho, and the back in favour Alan Hutton all impressing.

And Lambert said: "We have been tougher. That's a great testament not only to the back five but also the midfield lads who are putting one hell of a shift in."

Lambert was particularly delighted with the performance of Cissokho, adding: "I thought he was outstanding."

Keeper plays a blinder for Hayes

Rocester FC 1
Heath Hayes FC 1

HEATH Hayes came back from Rocester with a hard earned point after a goalless first half in which goal chances were very limited .

Hayes' young keeper Tom Burns having to make two smart saves to keep the half time score at 0-0

The second half went much the same as the first with defences on top until Rocester broke the deadlock when Brown buried the ball in a goalmouth scramble after it had come back off Burns.

Then on 75 minutes the game was hit with 20 minutes of floodlight failure.

It eventually got going again and three mins later Hayes equalised through Chris Geldart whose looping effort found the top corner,

More drama was to unfold when keeper Burns was harshly adjudged to have bought down Ward but the young keeper made amends by superbly keeping out his kick.

The last five minutes saw Hayes have three good chances to come away with the three points but it wasn't to be. Goalkeeper Burns is worthy of special mention who played well on a terrible night for stoppers.

Three showers see an end to game

Stourbridge 167 Penkridge 7-0 (Match abandoned)

SATURDAY'S clash between Stourbridge 1st XI and Penkridge 1st XI for the second spot in Division Two of the Birmingham and District league was abandoned after the third shower at the Memorial Ground.

This opens the doors for Attock 1st XI to move into the promotion spot after defeating Old Elizabethans a crucial match unaffected by the weather.

Two teams go up into Division One; Leamington Spa are the runaway team in the first spot with 286 points.

Cricket

The Bank Holiday Monday fixture between Stourbridge and Attock was also abandoned without a ball being bowled.

Attock overall will be the beneficiaries of calamitous holiday weekend weather for cricket. They currently have 226 points.

Penkridge are third on 221, with Stour slipping to fourth on 216 points.

In the Stourbridge versus Penkridge fixture the home side faced the worst of the conditions after being asked to bat first.

Penkridge captured the wickets of Alex Bingham (5), Steve Game (3), Richard Bradley (0) and Audy Alexander (14) with the total on 55 in the space of nine overs. Paceman Laeq Chisti bagged three of the wickets with the ball swinging profusely.

Matt Bradley and Jitesh Jivan-Patel both handled the intense pressure in workmanlike fashion and put on 95 invaluable runs to repair the damage.

Patel was stumped off Shafiqu Ahmed on 33, scored off 80 balls.

His wicket, which fell on 150, triggered a procession of wickets as Stour all out for 167 with 13 overs still remaining of their innings.

On this occasion Stour's tail lacked resilience, giving the opposition a chance of an important victory. Bradley remained stranded not out on 80 off 82 Balls hitting 12 fours and a six.

The recalculated target due to rain interruptions for Penkridge was agreed to be 122 off 27 overs.

The game was set for an exciting finish. However, a third shower meant both teams lost their positions in the table due to the vagaries of the weather.

Rangers' defence suffers from Leek

Leek 2
Stafford Rangers 0

RANGERS dropped their first points of the season as they went down to fellow high-fliers Leek – another of the teams with a 100 per cent record going into this Bank Holiday derby clash.

But two first half efforts handed the points to the home side to see them go two points clear at the top of Evo-Stik Division One South.

Stafford should have opened the scoring after just nine minutes when Christian Dacres met a corner but his header went wide.

Rangers keeper Adam Whitehouse did well to keep out a Darren Chadwick header from another corner midway through the half but he was powerless to stop the home side from taking a 25th-minute lead. Sloppy marking at a corner allowed Dan Shelley to pick up the ball unchallenged and his shot was flicked past Whitehouse by Niall Maguire.

Stafford struggled to create and fell further behind on the stroke of half-time when Matt Bell's free-kick picked out Sam Hall whose bullet header gave the visiting keeper no chance.

It was one-way traffic after the break.

Scholars leave it to second half to strike

Spalding United 0 Chasetown 2

CHASETOWN dazzled their hosts with a brilliant second-half display to come away with all three points.

Nathan Waite and Danny Edwards were on target to give Chasetown a second win in three Evo-Stik Division One South games.

Spalding keeper Michael Duggan made a stunning save to keep out a Simon Brown free-kick early in the match and stop the Scholars getting foothold on the game.

The midfielder's effort was delicately floated over the wall and was heading to the top corner but somehow Duggan managed to get across and clawed the ball out before it crossed the line.

The Tulips then took control of the game and John Bateman was called into action when Tom Waumsley timed his run to avoid the offside trap and fired straight at the keeper.

Then Lewis Webb forced the Chase keeper into a low save to his right, which looked like it was heading back into the danger area before right-back Jermaine Johnson hooked the ball clear.

After the break, the Scholars quickened their pace.

The passing was crisper and that resulted in the opening goal just five minutes into the second period.

Brown floated the ball over to the far post where an unmarked Lee Parsons volleyed the ball back across goal and Waite stabbed out a leg to turn the ball home from close range – his first goal for the club after signing from Tividale.

Football

Waite came alive after his goal and curled a beautiful cross into the path of Wellecomme who got slightly underneath the ball and put his header over the bar from close range.

Duggan kept out Brown's low shot and then Waite fed Wellecomme who turned sharply and the keeper made a superb save to keep out the effort and hold on with Lee Butler ready to pounce to tap in any rebound.

The killer second goal came when Butler curled the ball perfectly on to the head of Danny Edwards who finished confidently from close range to put the game away for the Scholars.

Chasetown: Bateman, Johnson, Ravenhill, Slater, Robinson, Downes, Brown (Edwards 73), Parsons, Wellecomme (McDonald 90), Waite, Davies (Butler 65). Subs not used: Evans, George.

Spalding United: Duggan, Bore, Jackson, Miller, Leary, Webb, Grifiths, Hall, Tidswell, Waumsley, Thurlbourne. Subs not used: Burbeary, McKue, Ebdon, Roberts.

Mistakes cost the Casuals

Wolverhampton Casuals 1
Sporting Khalsa 3

Three costly mistakes by Casuals enabled Sporting Khalsa to make it four wins out of four in West Midlands Premier Division games.

Casuals took the lead through Anthony Nicholls-forcing the ball home from three yards after Khalsa keeper James Pemberton failed to hold on to a Angelo Franco's 20-yard free-kick. But Jamie Oliver, was given the freedom to head home a Tim Jackson free-kick to level.

Khalsa went in front five minutes later when the unmarked Brad Lawler headed in another free-kick taken by Jackson.

Marvin Nesbitt won it for Khalsa.

A Bridge too far for Lockmen

Bridgnorth 5 Willenhall 1

WILLENHALL suffered a 5-1 defeat to an impressive Bridgnorth side in the West Midlands Premier Division.

The Reds took an eighth minute lead when a ball from Matt Dorgan found Tony Clift on the right, he cut inside and launched a fierce drive high and wide of home keeper Chris Crook.

The Blues seized control in the second half and took the lead through skipper Jason Pike in 64 minutes, before three goals in eight minutes from Karl Griffiths, Ryan Guryn and Coney completed the scoring.

This Saturday Willenhall play Malvern Town, 3pm kick-off, the following Tuesday they welcome Ellesmere for a 7.45pm kick-off.

Case for defence as spoils shared

Chasetown 0 Tividale 0

TIVIDALE preserved their unbeaten start to the Northern Premier League campaign at Chasetown, although they were unable to maintain their 100 per cent record as defences came out on top.

The visitors had a couple of long-range efforts in the first half which flashed wide, while the hosts created early chances for Richard Davies and Nick Wellecomme but neither threatened Charles Price in the away goal.

Midway through the half, Nathan Waite timed a pass to perfection to Lee Parsons, but Price rushed off his line to deny the midfielder.

Former Scholar Jazz Luckie, who only signed for Tividale at the weekend, almost marked his return to Chasetown with a goal, heading wide from six yards.

Chasetown had strong appeals for a penalty turned away when Wellecomme was barged off the ball.

The second half's highlight was a run from Scholars' Davies that ended in a flashing shot no more than a foot wide.

Chasetown: Bateman, Johnson, Ravenhill, Slater, Robinson, Downes, Butler (Brown 68), L Parsons, Wellecomme, Waite, Davies. Subs not used: Evans, George, McDonald, Pond.

Tividale: Price, A Parsons, Foster, Bellis, Huckfield, Paskin, Downing, Botfield, Archer (Penny 86), Taylor-Boyce, Luckie (Wardle 76). Subs not used: Plows, Williams, Turner.

Gayle blows away Saddlers at the Banks's

Walsall 0 Crystal Palace 3

Football

IT is well-documented Walsall have trouble finishing. Dwight Gayle does not.

The Palace hitman needed just 41 minutes to blast a brutal, clinical hat-trick and send the Saddlers spiralling out of the Capital One Cup at the second round stage once more.

All three finishes were of the highest quality, giving keeper Richard O'Donnell no chance.

What Dean Smith would do for a player like that in his all too frequently toothless attack. Gayle took just seven minutes to put the visitors in front, pouncing on a quick free-kick from former Wolves man Adlene Guedioura and rifling a shot into the bottom corner.

His second was a clever free-kick, drilled under the wall, while the third four minutes before the break ended any remaining notion of the game being a contest.

Walsall, to their credit, kept going and Ashley Grimes hit the post early in the second period.

But a comeback was never likely to materialise on a night when Premier League quality proved simply too strong.

There should be no great surprise. Palace paid Peterborough £6m for Gayle 12 months ago and this was a night when logic won the battle.

The Saddlers had hoped for a fairytale which might see them end a 12-year wait to reach the third round. That run now stretches on, as does their poor record against Palace.

It is 14 games and 39 years since their last victory over the south London club.

If there is any comfort for Smith, it is that Gayle was playing non-league football three years ago.

As the manager hunts more firepower, such gems are out there.

Smith made just one change to the team which claimed a 0-0 draw at Leyton Orient on Saturday, with Romaine Sawyers reclaiming his place in the starting line-up at the expense of James Baxendale.

Palace caretaker boss Keith Millen made nine changes, with one former Wolves man Wayne Hennessey starting in goal and another in Guedioura also playing.

FRANCIS COMES TO THE DEFENCE

Hednesford Town 2 Solihull Moors 1

FRANCINO Francis was the hero for Hednesford Town as the Pitmen central defender swept in a superb winner.

The game was played in torrential August bank holiday rain as Rob Smith's depleted side secured a vital three points against local rivals Solihull Moors.

Football

Saturday's draw with Gloucester City saw both Glenn Walker and Tom Thorley pick up long term injuries, a broken foot and broken arm respectively, and the Pitmen squad was stretched to the limit as a result.

Darren Campion and Kris Taylor both shook off fitness doubts to play for the home side with Tom Peers and Dominic Dell being handed starting berths in attack against a strong and highly physical Solihull outfit.

Injury

It was the Birmingham team who started positively, peppering the Hednesford defence with long balls into the area but Francis alongside first Paul McCone, who succumbed to an injury after 20 minutes, and then his replacement Ben Bailey dealt with the aerial threat admirably.

Peers came closest with a left foot volley for the home side, saved well by Tony Breeden at the near post but the home side seized the initiative as, with just over half of the first period gone, a suicidal square ball across the Solihull defence was intercepted by Peers who advanced on goal and cheekily waited for Breeden to commit himself before calmly lifting the ball into the net.

Hednesford goal keeper Dan Crane had to be alert off his line to smother Junior English as he rushed onto a loose ball but the Pitmen continued to deal with Solihull's aerial assault until the interval in miserably wet conditions.

Solihull equalised out of the blue shortly after the break as the umpteenth hopeful ball into the box wasn't cleared fully by the Hednesford defence and Liam Daly, up from the back, superbly half volleyed the ball past Crane on 52 minutes.

Dell made way for Marvin Robinson shortly afterwards as the Pitmen looked for more bite in attack and Danny Glover, fresh from his astonishing free kick against Harrogate last week, saw his shot loop inches over the cross bar on 64 minutes.

With six minutes to go the Pitmen won the match when Francis strode out of defence, played a one two with Robinson and swept the ball past Breeden.

Aussie saviour of Albion

Albion 1 Oxford 1

ALBION were spared ultimate cup humiliation as Jason Davidson clinched an epic penalty shoot-out win against the Football League's bottom club.

Davidson's spot-kick on his full debut secured a 7-6 shoot-out win for the Baggies after they had squandered a 1-0 lead in the final minutes of normal time.

An own-goal had given the hosts the lead just before the half-hour but a woeful second-half display encouraged Michael Appleton's Us, who levelled in the dying moments through Danny Hylton.

There were no goals in extra-time and, after James Morrison and Brown Ideye had missed for the Baggies and Michael Collins and Tom Newey for Oxford, Boaz Myhill saved from Jake Wright to give Davidson a chance to win it. The Australia international found the top corner to spare the blushes of Alan Irvine's men.

Albion made a bright start and went close in the opening moments.

With eight minutes in stoppage-time left the Us were reduced to 10 men.

Kinsella displays impress keeper

RICHARD O'DONNELL says Liam Kinsella has had the best start to a professional career of anyone he's ever seen.

The keeper believes the 18-year-old has been 'unbelievable' in his first three games for the Saddlers.

Kinsella, a first-year professional, has impressed against Bradford and Yeovil.
